CITY OF PEKING CAPTURED

PLAYMATE, 4, IS SHOT TO DEATH BY BOY, 10

CINCINNATI. — Richard Abraham, 4, was dead and Robert Lukaus, 10, was held by juvenile authorities here today, following a childish quarrel.

According to Richard's brother, George, Lukaus ordered the Abraham boy to pick up a piece of paper which had fallen on the floor during their game. When Richard refused, Lukaus went into another room, procured a revolver and shot his playmate thru the chest.

WHITE OR DUFFY TO WITHDRAW

May Decide Today Which Will Run Against Donahay.

LEADERS ARE IN CONFERENCE

Three Cornered Race for Governor Frowned on.

COLUMBUS. — (Associated Press) — Conferences among Democratic political leaders here today are expected to result in determining whether former State Auditor A. V. Donahay of New Philadelphia is to be opposed for the Democratic nomination for governor in the August primaries. Mr. Donahay who was the party's candidate in 1920, already has announced his candidacy.

Today's conferences are primarily, it is said, to determine whether George White of Marietta, former chairman of the Democratic national committee, or Thomas J. Duffy, chairman of the state industrial commission, will enter the race against Donahay. Political observers said it was practically a foregone conclusion that either White or Duffy would enter.

CONFERENCE PLANNED
White and Duffy are scheduled to confer late today on the proposition of one of them withdrawing from the race. Neither, however, has yet formally announced his candidacy. White also is to confer with Mr. Donahay. Mr. White, prior to the conference, would not discuss the situation.

It was reported that both White and Duffy consider it would be a futile proposition to make the race a three cornered one and that they hope to reach an understanding whereby one of them may not enter the race. Whether they will be able to reach such an understanding, however, was said to be without certainty. Mr. Duffy was engaged in industrial commission hearings today and would not discuss the situation. Mr. Donahay had not arrived at noon.

DUFFY ACTIVE
With the announcement of former Justice Hugh L. Nichols of Batavia, that he would not enter the race for the nomination, party leaders had considered it as a foregone conclusion that former Chairman White would immediately announce.

Before such announcement was forthcoming, however, Mr. Duffy became active as a prospective candidate. It is said there was a tacit understanding between Mr. White and Mr. Nichols that is one chose to enter the race the other would not enter.

Whether former Governor Cox has expressed a preference for candidates is not known. It was pointed out, however, by Mr. White's friends that he and the former governor are close personal friends.

On the other hand, both Donahay and Duffy's friends contend there is equal friendship between their candidates and the former governor.

New by 20,472 votes in Tuesday's primary for the Republican nomination for United States senator, according to complete unofficial figures from the 32 counties in Indiana as tabulated by the Associated Press here today.

The vote was Beveridge, 205,410 and New, 184,938, making the total Republican vote cast 390,348.

CHINESE CAPITAL TAKEN BY WU

Chang's Army Flees in Disorder After Fierce Battle.

7,000 DEAD AND WOUNDED

Victors Camp at City's Gates Ready to Enter.

PEKING, May 5 — (Associated Press) — General Wu Pei-Fu was in control of Peking at noon today and General Chang Tso-Lin, whose forces he routed yesterday in a fierce battle south of the capital, was reported fleeing to Mukden. Chang's army is retreating in disorder toward Tientsin.

Observers here believe Chang's sudden collapse has ended the hostilities.

BATTLE OF 15 HOURS

PEKING, May 4 — (Associated Press) — With 50,000 troops, General Wu Pei-Fu encircled Chang Tso-Lin's forces outside Peking today (Thursday) and after 15 hours of relentless cannonading, machine gun fire and infantry charges, routed his opponent, making himself the master of the situation around the Chinese capital.

Tonight Wu's forces camped unmolested outside the city gates while Chang's soldiers were scattered. The total casualties in the day's fighting are believed to have reached from 5,000 to 7,000 dead and wounded.

Before dawn Wu Pei-Fu started a simultaneous attack on all of Chang Tso-Lin's entrenched positions to the southwest of Peking. By five o'clock the Manchurian general had retired from Changsien, 12 miles southwest of Peking's gates.

FIGHTING INTENSE

Wu Pei-Fu's attack on Fengtai is believed to have been undertaken concurrently with similar drives at Machang and Chang Tso-Lin's southeastern front and also on his middle front of the Hun river. Consular reports indicated that the fighting at those places was intense. No details were received but it was reported that Chang Tso-Lin's army was forced to retire.

Peking tonight slept behind guarded walls. The gates were closed and barred and patrols of soldiers paced to and fro all night with fixed bayonets.

Only persons bound on official business were permitted to pass. Railroad communication in all directions has been suspended.

WILL ENTER CITY

PEKING, May 5 — (Associated Press) — General Wu Pei-Fu, leader of the Chih Li army, has sent a number of his officers into Peking to consult with the government authorities after his victory over General Chang Tso-Lin's forces south of this city. General Wu's officers declared the Chih Li commander could be expected in the capital soon.

General Wu attributes much of his success to the initiative of Peng Yuh-Siang, "the Christian General" who commanded the operations which resulted in the retreat eastward of Chang's army. Wu declares he will continue to fight until Chang has been driven back to Mukden, of which he is military governor.

Two thousand of Chang Tso-Lin's soldiers permanently kept in Peking were disarmed, under orders from Wu Pei-Fu. This is regarded as eliminating Chang Tso-Lin's authority in the capital.

THE next national step in education will be the children's theatre. We have started it as a community movement in Rochester and the results have been so splendid that I foresee its adoption by cities all over the country.

The dramatic field for little folk has far-reaching possibilities. It is high time that children learned what constitutes good drama and good acting. Otherwise there will be no development in the American stage.

NURSE SENTENCED TO 20 YEARS IN PRISON

MONTESS, Va. — Miss Sarah E. Knox, Baltimore nurse, faced twenty years imprisonment today after having been found guilty by a jury here last night of first degree murder in connection with the death of Mrs. Margaret Eastlake at Colonial Beach, several months ago.

The jury reached its verdict, recommending the 20 year term after 35 minutes deliberation and the court, in passing sentence, commented that the decision was "most lenient."

No announcement had been made by Miss Knox's counsel today whether an appeal would be taken.

The authorities, meanwhile were preparing to take her to Richmond to begin serving the sentence.

WEDDED GIRL FOR CONVENIENCE

New Englander's Plea in Answering Bigamy Charge.

NEW YORK. — (Associated Press) — Virginia St. Julian Mayo, wealthy New Haven manufacturer, charged with bigamy, testified today that Miss Wilhelmina Meyer, of Newark, N. J., the complaining witness, knew perfectly well that he had a wife living in Scranton, Pa., when he entered into a marriage of convenience with her.

In even tones, Mayo described the relations which he said had existed between him and Miss Meyer. It was at her suggestion that the name of V. J. Meyer was used in the marriage certificate. The certificate, he said, Miss Meyer desired in order to re-establish herself in the good graces of her wealthy grandmother.

"I told her that I didn't know how I could arrange a marriage legally," Mayo continued. "I said it was dangerous, that although I hadn't heard from my wife in some years, I did not know whether she was dead or alive."

"Miss Meyer said that if the thing could be done it would be kept absolutely quiet. She promised she would not tell a soul and she kept her word for a period of years."

Accompanied by Chief Lanker, Pauline Hurt, Dime Savings Bank Employee, Leaves for Canton, Where Bandit Gang Is Taken In Roundup

Three Men Killed and Two Yeggmen Reported Dying Following Battle In Stark-co—City to Offer Reward In Lima Holdup

Yeggs who held up the Dime Savings bank here Tuesday are believed to have been killed or wounded and captured in a gun battle near Canton late Thursday.

Chief of Police, T. A. Lanker, accompanied by Miss Pauline Hurt, an employee of the Lima bank, who was afforded the opportunity of getting a good description of the robber who got away with over $4,000, left at 7:30 Friday morning for Canton.

It is hoped by Lanker to identify one of the men taken there as the yegg who entered the bank here. Finger prints left on the partition in the bank were photographed and were taken to Canton by Lanker. Prints of fingers of the bandits held there will be taken and a comparison made.

Manager C. A. Bingham stated Friday that the city will probably offer a reward for the apprehension of the men who staged the Lima robbery. What amount will be authorized cannot be stated, Bingham said, for the reason that the city has no funds available and plans must first be worked out to secure the money.

Bingham stated that action in the matter of offering a reward may not be taken until the city commission meets Monday night. However, he said, he may be able to get the board together before that time.

The U. S. Guaranty & Fidelity Co., of Toledo, has announced the offer of a reward of $200 for the apprehension of the men who staged the robbery here.

Chief Lanker and Miss Hurt were expected to arrive in Canton shortly after noon. At 2 o'clock nothing definite had been determined concerning the dead and wounded bandits so far as the Lima case is concerned.

Indications are that the bandits at Canton were a part of the George McGahn band. If they are connected with the Lima robbery the deduction that McGahn staged the robbery here as a revenge for the death of his pal, Raleigh Townsend, as published exclusively in The Lima News Wednesday, is substantiated.

Three Killed in Canton Battle

CANTON. — (Associated Press) — Three men were dead and two bandits dying today, the result of a gun battle in a woods five miles north of here late yesterday between an armed posse and four gunmen following the kidnapping of a motorcycle policeman who had arrested the men for speeding.

The gunmen, police say, had come here in a stolen automobile to assist in the release of "Okla. Slim" John Stevens, a member of their gang, who is in the local workhouse and who is said to be wanted in numerous middle western cities on charges of bank robbery.

The dead were Ralph W. Hoffee, Canton contractor, member of the posse; Eddie Stevenson, Cleveland gunman. Undiscovered gunman Harry Harper and George Bruner, the other gunmen, were shot thru the head. Physicians said they could not survive the day.

Two others of the posse also were shot. When the gunmen were arrested by Motorcycle Policeman John Wise, they forced him to enter their automobile and drove to the woods where they bound, gagged and tied the officer to a tree.

J. C. Campbell, a telephone lineman who witnessed the kidnapping, notified police, then jumped in his automobile and followed the gunmen. Several times he stopped, climbed a telephone pole, cut in on a wire with his testing apparatus and notified the officers of the course of the fugitives.

As the officers neared the bandits, the latter opened fire and fled into the woods, where they were surrounded by the police and scores of citizens. The battle ensued.

When the fire from the gangsters stopped, the posse found all four sprawled on the ground, the unidentified man dead. Stevenson died later from his wounds.

Police are investigating the theory that the quartet may be those who robbed the Lima, Ohio Dime Savings Bank of $4,500 on Tuesday.

One of the members of the gang told sheriff Milo Catton that two of the gunmen had stolen an automobile in Sharon, Pa., last week and on Tuesday had stolen the touring car in which they rode yesterday.

OPLES WILL STICK JUROR IS OUSTED

Decides Not to Quit Race for Governor.

Result of Defense Charges in Gov. Small's Trial.

YOUNGSTOWN. — (Associated Press) — Mayor George L. Oles, who has been considering withdrawal of his candidacy for governor of Ohio on an independent ticket, today declared he would stay in the race because "practically every selfish interest in the state was determined to cry down my candidacy, even before it became an actuality."

"The politicians, large and small, want me to stay out," the mayor's 1,000 word statement added. "That is the reason I am going in."

The statement promised an "honest business man's administration" if the campaign is successful, and called for a "state-wide revolt against the existing order of things in the state government."

"There will be such a slashing of red tape in the administrative office at Columbus as will make the old Tories of graft and greed writhe in their graves and their weak-kneed imitators of today retire for a much needed rest," he continued.

After the hearing Judge Edwards said C. C. Lefforge, chief of counsel for the governor, that he did not care to hear from him and granted the defense request, sustaining the peremptory challenge for the removal of Melville. The court granted the state two extra peremptory challenges as compensation.

The state protested the ruling and insisted Melville should be given a chance to be heard before being condemned on another man's affidavits, but the court denied the request.

HARRIMAN BUYING UP BIG LINERS

Taking Lead in Building American Merchant Marine.

LINES NOW IN OPERATION

Starts Out to Realize Dreams of Railroad King.

By EDWARD M. THIERRY
NEW YORK—(Special)—A new figure is rising in the shipping world—William Averell Harriman son of the great railroad king, the late E. H. Harriman.

With a heritage of brains and the genius for organization that was his father's greatest asset, Harriman is taking the leadership in building an American merchant marine.

"It is a great constructive work," he said, in describing his ambitions for American shipping. "We are doing pioneer work."

Harriman is only 30, yet in five years he has become a power in shipbuilding and ship operation.

START AN ACCIDENT
"I got into the shipping business by accident," he said. "And I'm keeping at it."

That is his modest way of saying it was his keen foresight of the need for ships that impelled him to go into shipbuilding on a big scale two months before America entered the war. It was this "accident" of guessing right, and foreseeing the needs of the nation, that put him into shipbuilding.

"I am a believer in the United States merchant marine," he said. "When such a necessity as this comes a necessity for developing our export trade and building a naval auxiliary that is a national asset, I feel that ways and means will be found to make a merchant marine a success."

EYES LIKE FATHER'S
Harriman, who is tall, slender and broad shouldered, with a wide firm mouth, dark brown hair brushed straight back, and dark face and eyes like his father, sits at a desk in an office overlooking lower Broadway and talks in a grave, serious way—about ships; he dislikes talking of himself.

He did say—the shipping men say so—that he has started out to bring into realization one of the little known dreams of the late railroad king, a dream of the late E. H., when he died in 1909, was an American merchant marine.

There are 32 ships of approximately 240,000 gross tons in the fleet operated by the United American Lines. They are owned by the American Ship and Commerce Corporation and the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company and their subsidiaries. Harriman is chairman of the board of these companies, and his interests also include shipbuilding companies, steel foundry and machine companies, and a banking house.

Harriman is proud of his recent acquisitions, the giant Resolute and Reliance, former Dutch ships completed in 1920 and now sailing a fortnightly schedule between New York and Hamburg with calls at English and French channel ports.

Originally schooled in railroad-ing from the ground up, beginning immediately after leaving Yale, Harriman has since learned the shipping business from the bottom. He is married and has two daughters. At his home in Arden, N. Y., he farms on a large scale.

Harriman is upholding his father's reputation for hard work. "I like work," he says. "I cannot see how anyone could prefer to be idle. I am doing the thing which I believe is the best and the most important thing I can do for the interests of America. An American merchant marine means much to the nation."

BROTHER OF KERSHAW
SLAYER IS DEFENDANT
IN DIVORCE PETITION

Leo Nierenarten, 33, brother of Harold Nierenarten, convicted slayer of Joseph Scott Kershaw, was made defendant in a divorce suit filed in common pleas court Friday, by Margaret Nierenarten.

The notoriety of the murder trial and circumstances leading up to it are said to have moved Margaret Nierenarten to institute proceedings.

She asks the decree, however, on grounds of desertion, and neglect. She also asks the right to resume her maiden name, Margaret Chalmers.

They were married in Van Wert in 1914, and have no children. They have been separated for three years past, according to the petition.

PROSPECTIVE CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR WILL BE ROTARY SPEAKER MONDAY

T. J. Duffy of East Liverpool, chairman of the Industrial commission of Ohio and a prospective candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, is to address the Lima Rotary club at the noonday luncheon at the Hotel Noval, Monday.

Announcement of the coming of Duffy to Lima was made Friday by Edward M. Gordon, president of Rotary.

Duffy is expected to be the central figure in an assembly of representatives of the Democratic party of Allen-co here Monday afternoon, before his departure for the return trip to Columbus.

The East Liverpool man may release a formal announcement of candidacy for Governor before coming to Lima.

COUNTY BOARD GIVEN ESTIMATES ON PAVING MARION-RD SECTIONS

Estimates on the cost of paving sections A-1 and B, on Marion-rd, from the end of the present paving east six miles, were received from the state highway department by the county commissioners Friday.

The highest type of construction, according to figures prepared by state engineers, will cost $144,500. The county's half of the amount will be $72,250.

Bonds can be issued at once to cover the county's proportion, it is said.

Types of paving specified are macadam, Kentucky rock asphalt, asphaltic concrete and reinforced concrete.

No date for letting the construction work has been set.

CITY GETS ALL AUTO LICENSE MONEY DUE

Allen-co has paid over to this city all of the auto license tax money due up to April 30, according to County Auditor C. R. Phillips.

Payment amounting to $2,959.19 was made to Joseph F. Jones, city treasurer, Friday. In February the city received a settlement for the county of $4,346.68.

Settlement was formerly made twice each year, but a recent ruling enables county auditors to pay over the money as it is received from the state. The state retains 50 per cent of the license money and returns the balance to the community from which it is derived.

CONTRACTOR ARRESTED ON LICENSE CHARGE

Vaughn C. Miller, city engineer, Friday launched a campaign against contractors who fail to secure licenses for construction work, when he filed an affidavit in criminal court against R. L. Fletcher, engaged in erecting an apartment house on W. North-st. west of Baxter-st.

Miller charges that Fletcher proceeded to excavate a trench for sewer purposes leading from the curb to the house without securing a permit.

There have been many other violations of the permit ordinance, but no arrests were made, Miller said. Hereafter he'll start bringing them in, Miller warned.

ART STUDY CLUB BUYS PICTURE

First Contribution Made to Lima Art Museum.

IS WORK OF DAYTON ARTIST

Nucleus Secured, Plans for Building Start.

Nucleus for a future art museum in Lima was presented to the Art Museum association by the Lima Art Study club Friday.

At a meeting Thursday night, members of the club voted to purchase one of the paintings exhibited by Robert Whitmore of Dayton, in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium the fore part of this week.

A scene of a forest in winter was selected by the Art club as the work to be bought. After its purchase, Whitmore gave the club another picture, a spring scene in the mountains, to include in its gift to the proposed museum.

Both paintings are set in hand carved frames, the work of the artist and received much favorable comment during the exhibition just closed. This exhibit was in charge of the Fine Arts department of the Federation of Women's clubs.

Whitmore is an Ohio artist, and he members of the Art club feel that it is proper that an Ohioan be honored by having his works as the first to be purchased for Lima's proposed museum.

ART MUSEUM PLANNED
These pictures will be hung in some public place where they may be seen and enjoyed by Lima citizens. It is planned to start a fund for an art museum building, it is understood.

Mrs. E. A. Williams is president of the Art Study club, whose gift has made the start of a city art collection a possibility. It is hoped by the club that other organizations will add other paintings and art works and make it equal to any in the state of Ohio.

Those desiring to get in touch with the Detroit "Y" are asked to see the local secretary before leaving Lima as all arrangements can be made and the job assured before the applicant is put to the expense of going to Detroit.

Big Ones Get Away in The Fish Story

There is one "bug" that cannot be killed by cold or wet weather. That is the "fishing bug". Most everybody gets it, no matter how old or how young he is. A few cold winds may make us huddle our wraps, but no sooner does the sun peep around the corner of a cloud than our thoughts revert to fishing tackle.

Dad gets out his casting rod and landing net and promptly gets them all tangled up. Baby Jim has better luck and manages to fish very peacefully in the golden bowl. He may not get many fish but he has the fun fishing and that is about all that any fisherman ever gets anyway.

This is also the open season for playing hooky from school and fishing in forbidden pools. A "no fishing" sign will attract more fishermen than a real fishing spot. They figure there must be fish there or someone would not be trying to keep them out. About the only thing the boys will catch will be a "licking" when they get home.

Women also get the fishing fever and oftentimes some brave husband will take his "sweet woman" along on a fishing expedition. Wife learns that "women's rights" involve baiting her own hook and a lively discussion is apt to ensue between she and her "devotee" husband.

A dyed-in-the-wool fisherman is, however, a delight for sore eyes. He obtains so much satisfaction from going fishing and telling about the "one that got away" that one's heart just naturally warms up to him. Some desperate tales are told by fishermen as to the powerful fish which roam Allen-co waters.

Accidents form the most trying part of fishing. Did you ever notice how often fish poles break just as the fisherman is about ready to land a big one? Of course, one would not want to accuse anyone but it seems as though someone must make a lot of money selling defective fish poles to fishermen who desire to tell "big ones" when they come home from a trip.

Then, after the big fish have all gotten away and the others have been deemed too small to keep, you will see the wily fisherman vending his way to the fish market and making a "catch". It is a deception which is looked upon with tolerance by the fisherman's friends. It wouldn't do for him to go home empty handed.

Fishing is great sport and Lima has its share of fishermen. As a rule they are all good citizens except when they are fishing, then it is every man for himself, with the man who tells his story last having the edge on the rest of them.

BRIDGE ORDERED IN ROAD PLANS

New Structure Over Ottawa River Near Elida.

Plans for the Elida-Scotts Crossing section of the Harding Highway are to be changed to include the construction of a $40,000 bridge over the Ottawa river immediately west of Elida. Orders were issued by the state highway department Friday to include a new bridge in the road plans.

Sale of the road has been held up because federal authorities want four grade crossings taken care of. The state highway department is now insisting that a bridge be built along with the road, according to word from Columbus.

The present bridge is an archaic affair, only 14 feet wide. Two vehicles cannot pass. The approaches from either side are steep and so situated that drivers cannot see another vehicle coming from the opposite direction.

The bridge spans the river in the center of a double "S" turn, the scene of many accidents.

The new bridge will probably be constructed of reinforced concrete and will be at least double the width of the present structure. The road will be straightened and graded up to level with the bridge, reducing hazard to a minimum.

The old Elida bridge has been officially condemned by the state bridge inspector, state highway engineers, by the county surveyor and the county commissioners.

Decision of the highway department to build a new bridge along with the road will meet with the approval of motorists and road boosters in Allen-co.

O. E. PLEA FOR GRAND-AY PAVING FUND IS GRANTED; IMPROVEMENT STARTED

Approval by General court at Toledo of the proposed expenditure of $6,850 by the Ohio Electric on the Grand-ay paving project was announced Friday.

In a letter received by C. A. Bingham, city manager, that he is informed of the court's approval of the order presented Wednesday by E. J. Jones, receiver.

This expenditure will cover cost of paving the O. E.'s portion of Grand-ay between West and Metcalf-sts and is approximately 1,300 feet in length. It is understood that the court order will be forwarded immediately to the receiver.

Work on this much needed paving has been started, Manager Bingham said. All that has been holding the work back was the inability of the street railway to obtain funds to pave between the rails.

HARRIMAN BUYING UP BIG LINERS

Taking Lead in Building American Merchant Marine.

LINES NOW IN OPERATION

Starts Out to Realize Dreams of Railroad King.

By EDWARD M. THIERRY
NEW YORK—(Special)—A new figure is rising in the shipping world—William Averell Harriman son of the great railroad king, the late E. H. Harriman.

With a heritage of brains and the genius for organization that was his father's greatest asset, Harriman is taking the leadership in building an American merchant marine.

"It is a great constructive work," he said, in describing his ambitions for American shipping. "We are doing pioneer work."

Harriman is only 30, yet in five years he has become a power in shipbuilding and ship operation.

START AN ACCIDENT
"I got into the shipping business by accident," he said. "And I'm keeping at it."

That is his modest way of saying he has been fore-sighted of the need for ships that impelled him to go into shipbuilding on a big scale two months before America entered the war. It was this "accident" of rushing right, and foreseeing the needs of the nation, that put him into shipbuilding.

"I am a believer in the United States merchant marine," he said. "When such a necessity as this comes a necessity for developing our export trade and building a naval auxiliary that is a national asset, I feel that ways and means will be found to make a merchant marine a success."

EYES LIKE FATHER'S
Harriman, who is tall, slender and broad shouldered, with a wide firm mouth, dark brown hair brushed straight back, and dark face and eyes like his father, sits at a desk in an office overlooking lower Broadway and talks in a grave, serious way about ships, he dislikes talking of himself.

He didn't say—the shipping men say so—that he has started out to bring into realization one of the little known dreams of the late E. H. when he died in 1909, was an American merchant marine.

There are 32 ships of approximately 24,000 gross tons in the fleet operated by the United American Lines. They are owned by the American Ship and Commerce Corporation and the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company and their subsidiaries. Harriman is chairman of the board of these companies, and his interests also include shipbuilding companies, steel foundry and machine companies, and a banking house.

Harriman is proud of his recent acquisitions, the giant Resolute and Reliance, former Dutch ships completed in 1920 and now starting a fortnightly schedule between New York and Hamburg with calls at English and French channel ports.

Originally schooled in railroading from the ground up, beginning immediately after leaving Yale, Harriman has since learned the shipping business from the bottom. He is married and has two daughters. At his home in Arden, N. Y., he farms on a large scale.

Harriman is upholding his father's reputation for hard work. "I like work," he says. "I cannot see how anyone could prefer to be idle. I am doing the thing which I believe is the best and the most important thing I can do for the interests of America. An American merchant marine means much to the nation."

BROTHER OF KERSHAW SLAYER IS DEFENDANT IN DIVORCE PETITION

Leo Nierengarten, 33, brother of Harold Nierengarten, convicted slayer of Joseph Scott Kershaw, was made defendant in a divorce suit filed in common pleas court Friday, by Margaret Nierengarten.

The notoriety of the murder trial and circumstances leading up to it are said to have moved Margaret Nierengarten to institute proceedings.

She asks the decree, however, on grounds of desertion and neglect. She also asks the right to resume her maiden name, Margaret Chalmers.

They were married in Van Wert in 1914, and have no children. They have been separated for three years past, according to the petition.

PROSPECTIVE CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR WILL BE ROTARY SPEAKER MONDAY

T. J. Duffy of East Liverpool, chairman of the Industrial commission of Ohio and a prospective candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, is to address the Lima Rotary club at the noonday luncheon at the Hotel Naval, Monday.

Announcement of the coming of Duffy to Lima was made Friday by Edward M. Gordon, president of Rotary.

Duffy is expected to be the central figure in an assembly of representatives of the Democratic party of Allen-co here Monday afternoon, before his departure for the return trip to Columbus.

The East Liverpool man may release a formal announcement of candidacy for Governor before coming to Lima.

COUNTY BOARD GIVEN ESTIMATES ON PAVING MARION-RD SECTIONS

Estimates on the cost of paving sections A-1 and B, on Marion road, from the end of the present paving east six miles, were received from the state highway department by the county commissioners Friday.

The highest type of construction, according to figures prepared by state engineers, will cost $144,500. The county's half of the amount will be $77,250.

Bonds can be issued at once to cover the county's proposition, it is said.

Types of paving specified are macadam, Kentucky rock asphalt, asphalt concrete and reinforced concrete.

No date for letting the construction work has been set.

CITY GETS ALL AUTO LICENSE MONEY DUE

Allen co has paid over to this city all of the auto license tax money due up to April 30, according to County Auditor C. R. Phillips.

Payment amounting to $2,950.13 was made to Joseph F. Jones, city treasurer, Friday. In February the city received a settlement for the county of $4,346.58.

Settlement was formerly made twice each year, but a recent ruling enables county auditors to pay over the money as it is received from the state. The state retains 50 per cent of the license money and returns the balance to the community from which it is derived.

CONTRACTOR ARRESTED ON LICENSE CHARGE

Vaughn C. Miller, city engineer, Friday launched a campaign against contractors who fail to secure licenses for construction work, when he filed an affidavit in criminal court against R. L. Fletcher, engaged in erecting an apartment house on W. North-st, west of Baxter-st.

Miller charges that Fletcher proceeded to excavate a trench for sewer purposes leading from the curb to the house without securing a permit.

There have been many other violations of the permit ordinance, but no arrests were made, Miller said. Hereafter he'll start bringing them in, Miller warned.

ART STUDY CLUB BUYS PICTURE

First Contribution Made to Lima Art Museum.

IS WORK OF DAYTON ARTIST

Nucleus Secured, Plans for Building Start.

Nucleus for a future art museum in Lima was presented to the Art Museum association by the Lima Art Study club Friday.

At a meeting Thursday night, members of the club voted to purchase one of the paintings exhibited by Robert Whitmore of Dayton, in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium the fore part of this week.

IS A FOREST SCENE
A scene of a forest in winter was selected by the Art club as the work to be bought. After its purchase, Whitmore gave the club another picture, a spring scene in the mountains to include in its gift to the proposed museum.

Both paintings are set in hand carved frames, the work of the artist and received much favorable comment during the exhibition just closed.

This exhibit was in charge of the Fine Arts department of the Federation of Women's clubs.

Whitmore is an Ohio artist and he members of the Art club feel that it is proper that an Ohioan be honored by having his works as the first to be purchased for Lima's proposed museum.

ART MUSEUM PLANNED
These pictures will be hung in some public place where they may be seen and enjoyed by Lima citizens. It is planned to start a fund for an art museum building, it is understood.

Mrs. E. A. Williams is president of the Art Study club, whose gift has made the start of a city art collection a possibility. It is hoped by the club that other organizations will add other paintings and art works and make it equal to any in the state of Ohio.

Big Ones Get Away in The Fish Story

There is one "bug" that cannot be killed by cold or wet weather. That is the "fishing bug".

Most everybody gets it, no matter how old or how young he is. A few cold winds may make us hunt our warm fireplaces, but no sooner does the sun peep around the corner of a cloud than our thoughts revert to fishing tackle.

Then, after the big fish have all gotten away and the others have been deemed too small to keep, you will see the silly fisherman wending his way to the fish market and making a "catch". It is a deception which is looked upon with tolerance by the fisherman's friends. It wouldn't do for him to go home empty handed.

Fishing is great sport and Lima has its share of fishermen. As rules they are all good citizens except when they are fishing, then it is every man for himself, with the man who tells his story last having the edge on the rest of them.

Fishing is great sport and Lima has its share of fishermen. As rules they are all good citizens except when they are fishing, then it is every man for himself, with the man who tells his story last having the edge on the rest of them.

Then, after the big fish have all gotten away and the others have been deemed too small to keep, you will see the silly fisherman wending his way to the fish market and making a "catch". It is a deception which is looked upon with tolerance by the fisherman's friends. It wouldn't do for him to go home empty handed.

O. E. PLEA FOR GRAND-AV PAVING FUND IS GRANTED; IMPROVEMENT STARTED

Approval by Federal court at Toledo of the proposed expenditure of $6,880 by the Ohio Electric on the Grand-av paving project was announced Friday.

In a letter received by C. A. Bingham, city manager, that he is informed of the court's approval of the order presented Wednesday by B. J. Jones, receiver.

This expenditure will cover cost of paving the O. E.'s portion of Grand-av between West and Metcalf-sts and is approximately 1,300 feet in length. It is understood that the court order will be forwarded immediately to the receiver.

Work on this much needed paving has been started, Manager Bingham said. All that has been holding the work back was the inability of the street railway to obtain funds to pave between the rails.

267 CONVICTS LET OUT ON HONOR

Confidence of Ohio Penitentiary Warden Not Violated.

RETURN AFTER HOME VISIT

Allowed Trips in Times of Illness and Death.

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — Gaining the confidence of convicts by trusting individual honor, is the theory on which Warden P. E. Thomas of the Ohio Penitentiary has permitted 267 prisoners to go to their homes unguarded at times of serious illness or death of members of their families in the last ten years, without once having his confidence violated.

The warden admits that the element of being able to single out men, who in his opinion, will honor a trust, enters into his selection of those to whom this privilege is extended.

In such cases, Mr. Thomas said, it is impressed upon the mind of the convict that it is a case of "man to man and not prisoner to his keeper." "And if that man will look me in the eye, and say 'yes' when I ask him, 'I want your word of honor that you will come back' the chances are, as has been proven, 267 to nothing that he will return, and they always come back, on or before the specified time." There are others, however, who have lost all semblance of honor, and when such a privilege is extended to them, a guard goes along, he said.

RECENT INSTANCE

The most recent instance of this phase of the honor system came about thru the drowning at Findlay, Ohio, of the two children of Grover Meek, since paroled. After seeing him off to his home, Warden Thomas succeeded in having his parole date advanced, making it unnecessary for him to return to the prison.

Another example of the system is revealed in privileges granted members of the Penitentiary quartet, disbanded a year ago when the sentences of several of the men expired. These four men were permitted to leave the institution at night on numerous occasions, to sing at various functions in Columbus. They always returned.

During Warden Thomas' term he has picked men for various honor jobs from more than 100,000 convicts, and in all but a few instances, his confidence has never been violated.

WOULD ABOLISH BOARD

FINDLAY — Resolutions urging the abolishment of the state public utilities commission on the grounds that it is proving detrimental to public welfare were adopted by the Findlay Real Estate Board.

MUST REPORT VIOLATION

CINCINNATI — United States Circuit Court of Appeals in a decision held that a man may be punished for failure to report violation of the Volstead act by his neighbor to authorities.

OVER-RECREATION WRECKS MIND

Causes of Insanity Revealed by Aid Association.

NOT RESULT OF WORRY ONLY

Movement on Foot to Check Mental Disorders.

NEW YORK. — (Associated Press.)

The public is said to be becoming saner about insanity. Families used to feel it a terrible stigma if any of their kin was considered "a little bit off," as the saying went. But thousands of such people now go voluntarily to free dispensaries "for nervous and mental disorders."

Last year 3,858 persons in New York State made 9,969 visits to the 40 such clinics conducted thruout the state. Only five or six years ago such a thing was unknown, according to officials of the State Charities Aid Association, which is co-operating in the work.

This organization, pointing to statistics which show the tuberculosis death rate dropped about 34 per cent from 1907, when this organized fight on the white plague began, to 1920, expects to show the same results in its battle against insanity.

The war and the business depression that has followed caused a considerable increase in mental disorders, Aid Association officials declared. They have found, however, that serious worries and diseases are not the only waves that shove the mind off an even keel. Some people become unbalanced by too much recreation, just as others skid from the path of sanity because of overwork and domestic unhappiness.

ASSOCIATION'S AIMS

What the Association intends to do is popularize information concerning the causes, treatment and prevention of mental disorders generally. It contends that 40 per cent of the 40,000 persons in New York State who are now under treatment in asylums and hospitals for feeble minded could have been saved from such a fate if the proper care preventative measures had been taken in time. "It feels that since the asylums of the country have a greater enrollment than the colleges, the people ought to be taught to have themselves examined by competent physicians if they feel queer, or if acquaintances so consider them."

The most hopeful sign for cutting down insanity is in the attitude of parents and teachers toward children, in the belief of the Aid Association.

"If we can help the queer children, we will have fewer queer grownups in the future," one official said.

PIQUA MAN ELECTED LIMA "Y" SECRETARY

Thomas Pearman of Piqua, was elected general secretary of the Lima Y. M. C. A. at a meeting of the board of directors Thursday evening, R. J. Plate, president of the "Y," announced, Friday. Pearman is now general secretary of the Piqua "Y" and will begin his work July 1. He succeeds Louis C. Bradshaw, who has been secretary here for two years. Bradshaw has not definitely accepted the secretaryship of an other Y. M. C. A., he said. Pearman has been connected with the Piqua "Y" for more than three years and is active in civic affairs. He is president of the Piqua Rotary club and a member of the board of directors of the Ohio Society of Crippled Children.

Quality Boot Shop's First Birthday Sale

Starts

SATURDAY, MAY 6th

We are not addicted to the special sales habit for every trifling occasion, but we cannot pass lightly over the fact that this is our first anniversary.

One year ago this week, contrary to the advice of well meaning friends, we launched out in the shoe business at our present location. Surely the wisdom of our choice of location has been demonstrated. We now venture to prophesy that Market Street from the Public Square to McDonel Street is destined to be the Fifth Avenue of business in Lima.

We do not wish to be boastful but we cannot help but feel elated over our progress at having successfully passed our first year. Surely we are demonstrating success in spite of local and general business depression.

We had a reason for preferring our present location amid classy and worthy business concerns, it is because we cater to a very discriminating clientele. The name quality expresses our aim exactly, especially when it includes service as well as merchandise.

We do not expect to be transient. We aim to make permanent friends and boosters.

You must be satisfied here if it is within human possibility. We give expert service with our shoes. This present venture is the culmination of a life time devoted to selling and fitting footwear.

We are specialists catering to men and women who wish to stay young. We handle no children's shoes.

Being specialists we center our attention on shoes that are the acme of style, give the maximum of service and fit the feet accurately.

Naturally having a mind centered on limited lines we should and do serve better. We want you to become acquainted with our merchandise, with us and our methods.

You will be agreeably surprised to find how well we are equipped to serve you. Our merchandise is all new. We have no old, unsaleable goods to offer you. This is not a sale to rid our shelves of unsaleable merchandise. Every thing is new, the latest in creation and the reductions are actual and very special for this occasion.

We are, for the sake of getting better acquainted, going to give practically all our profits to our customers and have, consequently, priced all our shoes so as to be irresistible to wise buyers.

Come in even though its only to look around. We have the prettiest and best equipped Boot Shop in town. We are proud of it. You certainly will be pleased with it also.

Furthermore, and best of all, you will profit greatly if you take advantage of our wonderful and genuine bargains. The prices are absolutely special for the occasion.

COAL PRICES ARE CONFUSING

Quotations Offered City Cause Uncertainty.

MONEY IS SAVED IN DEALS

Big Purchases Afford Adequate Supply Here.

Coal prices are jumping around in such a confusing way that it is almost impossible to decide what the correct price is, Harry N. Osgood, city purchasing agent, says.

A large amount of coal is used by the city and scarcely a day passes but that several coal salesmen drop in to city hall or call up over the phone.

VARY QUOTATIONS
It is not unusual for several quotations on the same grade of coal to be received in the same day and it is not unusual to have the prices vary as much as $1 a ton or more, Osgood says.

Some time ago Osgood was in the market for two cars of a certain grade of coal for experimental purposes at the waterworks plant. It was desired to buy it as low as possible.

Within two hours after the coal had been found and purchased at a little more than $2.50 a ton, a salesman called up and offered a special bargain at $3.50 in the same grade of coal.

It had happened that the city had been especially fortunate in getting two cars of coal considerably under the general market. No more fuel could be obtained under $3 from any source.

Inability of the furnaces at the water work plant to use a high volume coal makes it impossible for the city to use Ohio coal. West Virginia fuel is bought mostly, Osgood says.

If there was some way to grind the coal and feed it to the boilers in a fine condition, Ohio coal could be used economically. Now it would all "go up the smokestack and be lost," Osgood says.

SUPPLY ADEQUATE
Plenty of fuel is on hand and there need be no fears that Lima will feel the effects of the coal strike, city officials say. Recent purchases have removed all chances of a fuel famine. Savings of more than $250 were effected by the city in the purchase of the last ten cars of coal. This is due to the bidding system employed by the city, officials say.

If Back's Lame or Kidneys Bother

Drink Plenty of Water and Milk—Start Flushing Them in the Morning.

Nine people out of ten overlook the fact that the kidneys, like the bowels, get clogged and need a purifying flushing now and then to help these delicate organs perform their duty. If the kidneys are clogged, the blood, otherwise there is a retention in your system of 1.1. Acid and poisonous matter which when permitted to remain in a pain and dull misery in the lower back, headache, rheumatic pains, distended rectum and all sorts of annoying troubles that excite and irritate the entire urinary system, creating distress.

An artificial drug is necessary. Merely secure a package of Dr. Care's KIDNEY PILLS.

Health Hikes Attract Many Lima People

Warm spring and summer weather makes everyone want to get out into the country and stretch his legs in a little hike.
Medical sharks tell us that walking several miles a day will keep the doctor away and that hiking is the best form of exercise one can find.

Walking is one thing that the whole family can join in and obtain the fullest benefit. Dad, mother and all the kids can obtain enjoyment from walks in the beautiful outdoors.

A happy family starts out in the early morning for a quiet hike thru the countryside. Everybody is happy and the sun shines down merrily. It is wonderful what a bracing atmosphere one finds. The country air smells fresh and the grass never seemed greener and more beautiful.

A couple of hours later all is changed. The sun has become hot and the walkers are busier wiping the sweat from their brows than observing the handwork of nature. Dad's corns are hurting him and sister Sue has developed a sunburned nose. It is a woebegone looking set of hikers.

There is nothing sadder to look upon than two men, out hiking to reduce their weight, who have lost their way and the first road sign they find shows they are 10 miles from home.

SENDS TANLAC TO RELATIVES IN ENGLAND

Ohio Woman Herself Gains 11 Pounds And Says She Feels Better Than When She Was 16 Years Old.

"I think so much of Tanlac I have just bought two bottles to send to relatives in England," said Miss Anna Stegwarth, R. F. D. 32, Barborton, Ohio.

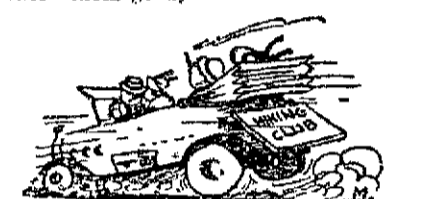

"Nervous indigestion had almost made a wreck of me before I knew it. All the troubles that go with a bad stomach attacked me. I had little desire for food and often would turn so sick at the table I had to leave it. What little I ate caused trouble in my stomach and hurt me all over. Sometimes I had such bad smothering spells I'd have to gasp for breath. I tried lots of medicines just kept going from bad to worse."

"Tanlac proved to be what I needed for I have gained eleven pounds and feel even better than I did when I was sixteen. Tanlac is a great medicine and I am glad to tell others what it did for me."

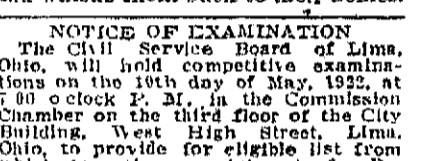

Tanlac is sold at all good drug-gists.

from home. Lucky they are if there is an interurban line nearby or a friendly autoist picks them up.

Women hikers are stealing the men's stuff. It is rumored also that a serious impairment in the man power among farm laborers will be seen if hiking by the girls continues. The farm laborer can't help but sit and watch them go by.

It is reported that the best way to hike is by automobile. The gaso-line car is the standby of many of our best hiking clubs. When the weary hiker begins to slow up the automobile pulls up alongside them and whisks them back to their homes.

CHART WILL SHOW PUBLIC WORK

Block System Adopted on Bingham's Suggestion.

ENGINEERS COMPLETE PLAN

Unique Method of Keeping Tab on Improvements.

A chart showing all sewer and street work being done by the city is being prepared by members of the city engineer's staff, under the direction of Vaughn Miller.

This chart, when completed, will show all work now being done and just how near completed it is. Each stage of the work from the passing of the necessary legislation to the final pat of the shovel will be shown. SYSTEM IS UNIQUE.

A system of blocks will be used, it is understood. Each block will represent a certain amount of work and when it is filled in it will be known that that work has been completed.

This chart will be placed in the city manager's office and will be open to inspection by the public. Those interested in certain projects will be able to discover readily just what progress has been made on them.

"A chart of this kind is needed very badly and when I discovered that Lima had none I asked the city engineer's office to prepare one," City Manager C. A. Bingham said.

"It requires much time and trouble to prepare a chart which will adequately answer the purpose, but when once prepared it will be easily kept up and will be invaluable in showing all concerned just what is being done," he added.

It will be a week or two before the chart will be completed and ready for presentation to the city manager, Miller said. It is desired to make it complete and considerable investigation is necessary.

Coming of warm weather and the granting of several of the intercepting sewer contracts have caused the starting of a number of new projects and it is desired to show each of these on the chart.

ADA MUSIC CLUB TO SING AT INFIRMARY AND HOSPITAL HERE

The club is composed of girls of high school age, numbering 22, who are interested in chorus singing. Mrs. W. L. Johnson, graduate of Bluffton College of music and Miami University, is director. Mrs. Johnson is head of the English department of the Ada High school.

The glee club has appeared in a number of surrounding towns. Miss Lois Wilcox is secretary.

ASSESSORS START QUEST FOR PERSONAL PROPERTY

Allen-co assessors started on the quest of hidden personal property Friday, armed with blanks for filling the possessions of citizens.

Taxpayers who failed to make out a return prior to May 1, will lose the $100 exemption allowed.

The assessors were all present at a meeting held in the office of County Auditor C. R. Phillips, Thursday afternoon. Phillips distributed the blanks and instructed the assessors in their duties.

He instructed them to compare this year's return with that of a year ago and to seek out property that has hitherto escaped taxation.

SOUTHLAND TRIP AFFECTS MIND

Witnesses in Collins Will Case so Testify.

NOT "FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH"

Fight for Part of Big Estate Near End.

Contrary to the opinion held by many, from Ponce de Leon down, a winter in Florida, the land of sunshine and flowers and the home of the "Fountain of Youth," has an aging rather than rejuvenating effect, if witnesses in the Collins will case, on trial in common pleas court, are to be believed.

One and all the witnesses for the defense, when questioned, aver that Samuel Collins, 46 years old, returned from the southland in 1919, weakened mentally and physically.

Questioned as to his capacity to transact affairs prior to his departure for St. Petersburg late in 1918, the testimony seems to show he still retained an aptitude for business.

Cambridge, Ohio.—"During expectancy I was almost a physical wreck. I was nervous, could not sleep, suffered with nausea, or sick stomach, had backaches, pains in my side and bearing pains. I was so near down that I could not do anything. Finally I decided to give Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription a trial. I had taken this medicine only a few days when I could see that my nerves were better, and by the time I had taken two bottles I felt as well as anyone could wish to be, did all my work and felt well and strong the remainder of the time. I had comparatively no suffering—was ill just a short time and I had a very fine healthy baby weighing nine pounds. The expectant mother will find 'Favorite Prescription' a great help in many ways."—Mrs. Milton Tipple, 707 S. 10th St.

ters seemed to be lacking, witnesses stated.

Trial of the case went into its fifth day Friday morning with little prospect of being finished before Saturday. Dorothy Collins, is suing to break Samuel Collins' will and obtain one-third of his estate, valued at $250,000.

The old family bible, in which the life history of members of the family for a century back is recorded was brought into court, Friday. Dates of birth and death of principals in the case were read to the jury.

Mrs. Perry C. Collins, wife of the defendant, read the dates at the direction of Attorney T. R. Hamilton.

Mrs. Collins was then questioned as to her life in the Collins family and particularly regarding the last year when Samuel Collins was approaching the close of his life. Her testimony was calculated to show a mental decline, especially during the winter Collins spent in Florida in 1918 and 1919, and in the months following his return in the spring.

PROPERTY IS VALUABLE

Samuel Collins, she said died in October, 1919.

Testimony designed to show that Dorothy Collins had already profited by her great-grandfather's bounty was introduced by the defense. J. L. Motter, president of the Lima Real Estate board, testified that property left Dorothy and her mother by Dr. Charles Collins is today worth nearly $100,000.

The defense will endeavor to show that Dr. Collins accumulated this fortune largely thru the assistance given him by his grandfather.

Secret of a Good Disposition

A woman who carefully safeguards her health benefits her disposition. She will be happy and attractive to all. The world unfortunately is filled with sweet women who are unhappy because they are held back from usefulness by troubles so common among them. Fretfulness and nervousness rapidly destroy good dispositions. Sickly, all-worn-out women cannot make happy homes.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a safeguard of women's health. This is clearly proven by the many letters we are continually publishing in this paper, from women who have been restored to health and happiness by its use after years of suffering. Why don't you try it?—Adv.

ALCOHOL ADDICTS COURT DEATH

Startling Case Comes Up in Criminal Court

IMBIBE POISONS

Turn to Toilet Water, Hair Tonic and Cologne

denatured alcohol! For art, medicinal and burning purposes only! It kills—empty stomach immediately with large quantity of lukewarm water, drink freely of sweet or strong coffee and inhale ammonia. Completely denatured alcohol is a violent poison. Cannot be killed internally to humans or animals without inducing blindness and general physical decay—ultimately death.

With that formidable label staring him in the face, R. McGrain, Alameda, Pa., took several deep breaths out of a bottle of N. Main—then oblivion. He woke up in the court when Judge Emmett J. Jackson said "Fifteen dollars, please."

McGrain could not pay the fine and will wear off the effects of the denatured dew in jail.

THE CASE IS STARTLING
But his case was no more startling than hundreds of others that come to his attention, Jackson said.

Almost everything that contains alcohol and can be used without inducing instantaneous death is on the list of the judge. The judge says that in the dead-end march in counties, army and the cells of the bull pen at the court, "Nobody sleeps at night when a drunkard is brought in a favorite expression among owners in on other charges."

But not least of broth that become stylish, the judge declared, is canned heat. A can of the heat is melted and soaked up in a then squeezed out. The result is much relished by drinkers.

Some men who have been brought in are human perfumers, Jackson said. With toilet water, orange witch hazel and a few other "chic" concoctions to choose from, the prisoners are arraigned in an essence permeating them a delectable making her first appearance.

A personal investigation conducted by the judge disclosed that an average of 40 bottles of toilet water is sold each Saturday in Lima.

PEPPERS POPULAR.

Peppers, Jackson said, had a run until recently when state prohibition officers visited the drug stores where it was sold and said: "There must be more medicine put in these bottles." Stocks were sold out and the rush resulted in an attack on a bargain store, the judge observed. Stores stopped selling it.

Monon extract, Jamaica ginger, is nothing more than ginger lived in alcohol; extract of jun-berries; denatured and wood alcohol, to say nothing about the sand and one varieties of moonshine, raisin jack and the of whatnot, are more or less available, but some of the more valuable stuff is enough to make normal person's hair stand up, according to Jackson.

In a word, the judge related, prohibition is creating a nation of idiots. Uncanny prowess is displayed in extracting from some of the poisons that will produce death. The humble Irish potato utilized, he said, in allaying the thirst of the drunk in medicated alcohol.

All the genius directed in distilling liquors was put to some legislative processes, national advancement would be enhanced, he said. "I asked whether humanity would die time become immune to effects of poisons taken under the name of liquor, Jackson answered the negative. Research work proven that there is only one death. The maximum time person to live after drinking is two years. Some die in two years."

DEATHS HERE

There have been two deaths in traceable to the effects of alcohol in each case the end was by blindness, paralysis of senses and total decay. Local officials became aware of the instances, Jackson declared.

Charge of murder against the author of poisons which result in is not illogical, both Chief of T. A. Lanker and Judge Jackson said. Such an accusation has brought against a man in the case, Lanker said, and the poses are that they will send

Official circles it has become able that the more deadly are coming into greater use he supplies of less dangerous have been exhausted. "But will reap the whirlwind in at several years and state inns will become crowded by inmates who now are blinded by anything except the satisfaction of craving that drives many of them, Lanker believes."

The origin of these clothes is divulged by the "Eilerman" label.

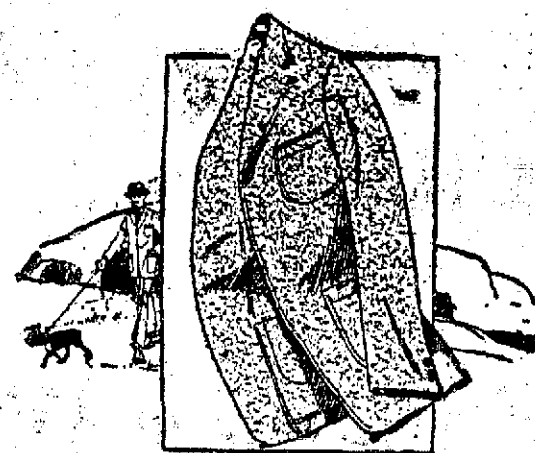

The integrity of the clothes from this shop consist not alone in the things that you see, but also in the things that are hidden to your view—in the long patient rows of fine hand-stitching that encircles the collar, the lapels, the arm-holes, and the fronts—stabilizing the shape and giving enduring beauty to the lines.

WELFARE FUND IS NOW $11,189

Elks Add $3,000. Sent to Chairman Beall Friday.

PLEDGES WILL ADD $3,000

Luncheon Clubs to Stage an Intensive Campaign.

A check for $3,000 sent to the Social Service Bureau by the Elks' club brought the total receipts to $11,189 10 J W Beall chairman of the campaign committee, announced Friday.

Subscriptions made but not paid will bring the total to between $13,000 and $14,000. Beall said this will just about cover up the indebtedness of the bureau and will leave nothing for work during the summer, he says.

NOTE IS PAID
A note of $2,500 was paid immediately upon receipt of the $3,000 check. This note was given to local business men last fall when the bureau needed cash to carry on its work, Beall said.

Fifteen teams composed of two men each, selected from the Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions clubs, will make a personal canvass next week to obtain funds for future work of the bureau, Beall announced.

Each club will appoint 10 men to canvass the teams. Each team will be given the name of two or three business men who are able to aid the work but have been too busy to make their contribution.

An intensive campaign continuing two or three hours will be made and every effort put forth to obtain the money needed to carry on the work of the bureau until conditions have fully returned to normal.

DATE IS NOT SET
"Lima has suffered less than other cities and the demand for money is less here than elsewhere," Beall said. Cincinnati is asking for $1,738,000 for similar work. This is much more in proportion than is being sought in Lima," he said.

A definite date for the intensive campaign has not been set. As soon as the teams are appointed an organization meeting will be held and the day set, Beall said.

HARMAN CHOSEN HEAD OF PARK BOARD; PLANS FOR YEAR DISCUSSED

F E Harman was made chairman, Mrs. Fred Becker, secretary and James Henry, treasurer, of the Lima Park board at its organization meeting Thursday night at the Hotel Argonne.

Plans for the coming year were informally discussed, but it was decided to take no action until a conference with City Manager C A Bingham could be arranged, Harman said.

Several members of the board will be busy on other matters for the greater part of next week and it is possible that the conference with Manager Bingham will be delayed somewhat, Harman said.

Raising of funds for care of the city parks is the paramount question before the board. But $180 remains from the city appropriation, Bingham says.

Conservatism in Boys and Girls Declared Wicked.

OLD ORDER INSUFFICIENT

University Students Told of Duties by Speaker.

LAWRENCE, Kan. — (Associated Press.) — In his speech at the University convocation here today, William Allen White, editor of the Emporia Gazette, urged the students "not to accept the order that is."

"The one blessed privilege of youth is to change things. The one duty of youth is a passion for change. Nothing is as wicked as a conservative youth," said Mr. White. "When you get older conservatism may be forced upon you by the logic of events. The inexorable grind of life may fill down your enthusiasm for a better world. But your first duty in life should be to make this world a better world, and in order to make this world a better world you must instill into your heart's belief that this is not the best of all possible worlds. It is, as a matter of fact, a fairly good world, but it is only good because youth like a generation ago decided it was bad world and should be made better, and it will be a bad world later, and it will be a bad world another generation, unless youth, you, with all the vigor and vision and enthusiasm of youth look out to make it better."

LAUGHTER REVEALING

"The first thing an engineer could do who would improve our civilization is to drench it with laughter. Laugh at it and see what it melts, as mere mud shams under ridicule. The play of hoisting and jeering will not crumble the one or iron or cement, but the city and paint and plaster will go. Directly youth, approaching civilization in which it must live, it. The ribald laughter of youth is the only thing that will take down the false construction of a monstrous pretense that the it often sets up as institutions, under which men are supposed to live. Laughter is not constructive; being one of the precious gifts the high gods, laughter is revealing. Let youth laugh as it will and the world need fear no decay. Only where mirth is checked, only where mirth is suppressed, does it hasten to break down civilization. When the haw-haw crop lan-shes, then the jungle creeps in. go to it, boys and girls. Laugh this thing we have builded here. best blood is in it. We have ed and moiled to get the old up and going. It looks solid, we old chaps are vastly proud of it. But what do we know? What is any generation know of its work? Laugh — blast your — laugh while we grit our teeth glare at you, and so go off stage sing you. But, lads, reverence what we have done is the one it menace to the structure be- you. It will not withstand your hier. It will not hold up for all prayers. You may live when you are y, Gidley!"

JAMESTOWN PLAN NOT FAVORED

City Heads Oppose Firemen Serving as Policemen.

NO MERIT IN DOUBLE DUTY

Bingham, Lanker, Mack, Declare Against It.

Will members of the Lima Fire department be required to do minor police duty between fires?

In Jamestown, New York, firemen are to be called upon to supplement the regular police force while "waiting for fires." It is something new in the protection of municipalities.

There does not seem to be very much chance that the Lima fire ladders will be called upon to chase down speeders, look for traffic violations or inspect garbage cans for the health department.

PLAN IS OPPOSED
Chief of Police T. A. Lanker, Fire Chief John Mack and City Manager C. A. Bingham are opposed to any changes which will in any way affect the efficiency of the present fire fighting force.

"I never allow any of my men to go more than 200 feet away from the fire station while they are on duty. A state law prohibits it and I'm against it anyway," Chief Mack said.

"Firemen are bred to fight fires and not to do police duty. While they are away from the station a fire might break out and cause thousands of dollars in damage before the force could be collected."

"I permit the men to cross the street for roller ball games in the lot opposite the central station, but that is all. The games keep them fit and are all right, but they must be ready when the gong rings," Chief Mack concluded.

City Manager Bingham was equally positive that two jobs could not be performed by the firemen, even though the state laws were amended to permit such a thing.

"Firemen are employed by the city to fight fires and they must be ready at all times to answer any call. If they are busy on another job, that is impossible," he said.

WAITING IS TIRESOME
"Waiting for a fire is tiresome work for the firemen and they would not doubt be glad if they could do some kind of easy work which would not interfere with their regular duty."

It would be out of the question, however, for the men to do anything which would take them away from the fire station and make it impossible for them to answer immediately any call which might come in," he said.

Use of firemen as emergency policemen is the only possibility seen by Chief Lanker. They could serve in this capacity very well if necessary, he believes.

"While our force is very small and any additional help we could get would do a lot of good, I'm afraid that using firemen as policemen in their spare time would not help out," he said.

"Each fireman would have to pass two examinations under the new system and this would cause complications. It would also be hard for a man to be a good fireman and a good policeman at the same time," he added.

"There are times when the firemen could be used as emergency policemen and if some arrangement could be made whereby they could be done it would help out our small force," he said.

IS AN EXPERIMENT
"Any combining of the work of the firemen and the police would be nothing more than an experiment and I would not be in favor of trying it here."

"It will be very interesting however, to see what results are obtained in the Jamestown test. If good results are had we might do something here," he concluded.

From this it seems that Lima firemen will not be called upon to chase robbers or tag automobiles while "waiting for a fire." Most of them will not waste any time mourning over the job they just missed, however.

JUDGMENT IN STOLEN ONION CASE APPEALED

How much are onions worth a pound when 24 bags are valued at $266.40?

In an appeal from decision of Justice of Peace William H. Guyton, filed in common pleas court Friday the court is asked to solve this problem in arithmetic.

E. C. Dalley, who it is claimed purchased the "tear producers" after they had been stolen from Carl McGuffey, objects to the price.

The onions were stolen from McGuffey's warehouse March 20 and sold here. It is alleged that the onions were identified while in Dalley's possession. Justice Guyton, April 26 awarded McGuffey $266.40. Dalley thinks the amount excessive.

PUTS IN LARGEST STORE OF RELICS

PONTIAC, Mich. — When future historians of the United States need information concerning happenings in the land of the long ago in the land of Chief Pontiac it is to the records and collections of Mrs. Lillian Drake Avery that they surely will turn for enlightenment.

Four years Mrs. Avery has been gathering relics of the past, and keeping up current history of her state by means of great scrapbooks filled with newszine clippings and personal writings. Her home contains probably the largest collection of material in existence bearing on the story of Michigan.

During the war she was on the lookout for every scrap of information relating to doings of the Michigan troops and her war history of the state is said to be unrivaled in completeness.

Mrs. Avery is a daughter of the American Revolution and an officer in various local and state pioneer societies. Her work as an unofficial chronicler has the highest value from a historical standpoint.

Famous Entertainer Made Well Again By Nerve-Worth

Thousands of people throughout the world have been afflicted by the wonderful follow through, of Nerve-Worth. Few could know that this charming man was practically a nerve wreck from constipation and stomach trouble for several years and that he had about despaired of getting any relief when he heard of the wonderful family remedy Nerve-Worth. But such was the fact. He stated that he improved so rapidly that he gained seven pounds before he had finished the first bottle. It was good, healthy, firm flesh took the place of the stomach, stomach and bloating, regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, tones up the system and does it all in an easy, natural manner without the use of any harmful drugs, but simple, reliable vegetable essences that act directly upon the seat of trouble.

Most druggists have it; you can always get it at the drug stores in this city and each druggist is authorized to give the money back if the results of the first bottle are not encouraging. ## RAIL MEN ADMIT CAR ROBBERIES

Two of Quartet Confess Tire Thefts; Officers Say.

LOOT VALUED AT OVER $350

Employees of B. & O. Taken Friday in Roundup.

Arrest of a quartette of local men by B. & O. Railroad detectives, directed by Captain Severs, Thursday night and Friday morning, clears up the theft of 15 auto tires from boxcars in the Lima yards, according to the officers. Eight of the tires were stolen a month ago and eight Wednesday night, according to the detectives.

C. W. Evans, 20, 940 E. High-st; Wilbur Smith, 25 of 551 S. Main-st and John Woods, 33, of 269 E. McKibben-st, are accused of taking the tires and F. H. Boegel, 25, of 1015 E. High-st, arrested at his home Friday at 8:30 a. m., is held on suspicion of receiving stolen property.

TIRES ARE RECOVERED
All of the tires were recovered, police say. Eight were found at the home of Boegel and four at Evans' house, according to officers. Smith who with Evans is alleged to have made a clean breast of the thefts, confessed that he sold four of the tires to an insurance salesman for $5 each.

Another arrest on a charge of receiving stolen property may be made, it is stated.

Altho evidence against Boegel appears conclusive, statements by Evans and Smith clear him of the receiving charge. Plainclothesman Ross Landfair, who heard the confessions of the pair Friday, said they told him they had merely left the tires at Boegel's home for convenience and that he was in no way connected with their disposal. The railroad detectives say Boegel bought them for $24.

A dozen work shirts are included in the loot which the trio took from a boxcar near Murphy-st ball park Wednesday night. Plainclothesmen Landfair and Lawlor stated. They have been recovered. The 15 tires are valued at $350.

ARE B. & O. EMPLOYEES
Smith is a B. & O. yard clerk and Evans and Woods are employed as switchmen.

Affidavits against the four were filed in criminal court. Evans, Woods and Smith are charged with stealing the eight tires Wednesday night and Boegel with receiving the tires taken a month ago. No charges were preferred against the three former, for the reason that the car from which they were taken was sealed and went on to Cincinnati, no shortage report having been received, Severs said.

Be Careful What You Wash Your Child's Hair With

If you want to keep your child's hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multisified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply put two or three teaspoonfuls of Multisified in a cup or glass with a little warm water, then moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisified coconut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Multisified. —Adv.

JUBILEE TO BE HELD at Otterbein College, which was founded in 1847, will be celebrated this year by the launching of a campaign to obtain $1,500,000, of which $1,000,000 will be used for endowment purposes, and $500,000 will be expended for new buildings. A diamond jubilee celebration will be held during commencement week, June 9 to 16, the institution recently having celebrated its seventy-fifth birthday.
The Blenden Young Men's Seminary of the M. E. church was purchased in 1847, and that was the basis for the present Otterbein College, which is a United Brethren institution. The first principal employed was William R. Griffith, at a salary of $300 a year and board.
The committee in charge of the plan to raise an endowment fund and money for additional buildings has fixed Jan. 1, 1923, 1924, 1925 and 1926, as the dates for payments of pledges. According to estimates there are about 145,000 church members and about 45,000 families in the territory of Otterbein, and attempts will be made to reach all of them during the celebration.
The celebration of Mrs. Lillian R. Harford's fiftieth graduation anniversary also will occur during the jubilee. Mrs. Harford, who formerly was editor of the "Women's Evangel," official organ of the Women's Missionary Society, has been president of that organization since 1905.

75% of Sales Made by Grocery Stores Are Made to Women

The American housewife is thrifty, so PIGGLY WIGGLY appeals to the American housewife. The American housewife keeps a clean pantry, so PIGGLY WIGGLY, which is the pantry of many women, appeals to the American housewife. PIGGLY WIGGLY recognizes the fact that directly or indirectly woman is the force behind many great movements—she is the power that guides and directs. PIGGLY WIGGLY recognizes the fact that thrift is more of a social question than economic question, and naturally a social question reverts to woman. PIGGLY WIGGLY encourages sane spending, economy and cleanliness, so PIGGLY WIGGLY appeals to the American housewife.

MILK RECORD SET BY MISS AAGGIE

California Cow Produces 35 Quarts a Day.

SHOWN IN 10 MONTHS TEST

Forty Pounds of Butter in Week is Registered.

DELAVAN, Wis. — (Associated Press) — Forty pounds of butter in seven days is the production record just announced for a California cow by Malcolm H. Gardner, superintendent of trials for the Holstein Friesian Association of America.

The cow is Miss Aaggie Ormsby Segis, a registered Holstein owned by Earl Hartwick Lankershim, Cal. Her milk production during the seven days was 144 pounds.

The test was supervised by the California Agricultural College, the California State Association and the National Holstein Association.

Miss Aaggie established a world's record over all breeds for two-year-olds several months ago, producing in ten months 22,081 pounds of milk, yielding 51.7 pounds of butter, it was stated.

The daily average for the ten months' test was more than 70 pounds of milk a day, or more than 35 quarts every twenty-four hours.

She freshened for her last record the last days of March only a few months after completing the ten months' record, the announcement stated. Less than fifty cows have produced 40 pounds of butter in a week, according to records of the United States Department of Agriculture.

WASHINGTON — President Harding has under consideration today the proposals of the joint congressional commission on reorganization of government departments and bureaus preparatory to submission of the plans to the congressional committee which is to draft legislation to put them into effect. "Only a few questions remain to be smoothed out," according to Senator Smoot, Republican, Utah, a member of the commission, and then the program is to be submitted to the committee.

The report was submitted to the president by Walter F. Brown of Ohio, chairman of the commission, at a conference at the White House last night attended by the members of the body. Other conferences are expected to be held by the executive with members of the commission and other congressional members on the reorganization proposals, which are understood to include consolidation of the war and navy departments and reorganization of several bureaus.

OPEN LETTERS

To Chief Lanker

DEAR TOM: Right sorry I am that your department was unable to overhaul the robbers who held up my Dime Savings Bank. I must commend you for the prompt manner in which your men were on the job after your office was notified of the robbery.

That you are handicapped in not possessing one or more high powered cars equal for speed to those used by bank robbers, is regrettable, but perhaps in time this deficiency can and will be taken care of.

LIMA BEANE

To County Commissioners

FRIENDS: Assurances emanating from your office and from the State Highway Department that contracts are being awarded for the construction of paved roads in Allen-co, are indeed gratifying.

If this county gets the 33 miles of improved road for this year, a fine start on the five-year program will have been made.

LIMA BEANE

To Postmaster Gale

DEAR COLONEL: I am pleased with your efforts to get the public acquainted with the postal work in your office. Much good should result therefrom.

Your campaign of education in order to speed up the mail service also is commendable. I am informed that in addition to the other things the public does that slows up the work, 20,000,000 letters find their way annually to the dead letter office because of improper addresses. Yet this is only a small fraction of the letters with bad addresses carriers are able to deliver after much study and effort.

I am glad you are endeavoring to cut down this nuisance.

LIMA BEANE

To Radio Fans

DEAR BOYS: Radio is both instructive and entertaining. It is a fine hobby and I am glad so many of you are taking it up. But remember! Safety first!

Keep your aerials away from commercial wires and the poles which carry them. Protect your house with a good lightning switch. Do not tamper with outside wires you believe are "dead." They may carry a high voltage. There is little danger in radio of you use care.

LIMA BEANE

To Lima Kiwanians

BOYS: Please accept my thanks for the great kite contest you are arranging for my boys and those of Allen-co. It should be a memorable event. Already interest is keen and I expect to see hundreds of youngsters at the fair grounds May 13. It wouldn't surprise me much to see some of their dads trying to break in on the game again.

LIMA BEANE

To Dr. N. Krich, Moscow, Russia

DEAR MADAM: You have, I understand, performed one of the greatest services on record by discovering and isolating the dread typhus germ. The next step will be a vaccine or curative serum. Like other deadly diseases, typhus probably will be dealt a death blow.

Your work is added proof of what I have always contended — that emancipated woman will run neck-and-neck with man in contributing to progress. There would already be more famous women were it not for the fact that they have been kept in seclusion for thousands of years.

LIMA BEANE

EXPENSIVE SPRING MILLINERY

To Lima Kiddies

MY YOUNG FRIENDS: You can help in accident prevention by exercising care and caution in the use of drawbacks or slung-shots. I notice too that many of you have adopted the use of air guns.

These too are dangerous, unless handled properly. I trust that there will be no reports of damage from these implements, or persons injured thru carelessness on your part.

LIMA BEANE

To Vehicle Drivers

FRIENDS: If you so desire, you can aid greatly in obviating the necessity of traffic officers at street intersections in my city. Drive carefully and conserve life and limb.

LIMA BEANE

To Postoffice Patrons

MY FRIENDS: Attention has been called to the fact that many persons have developed the habit of giving the revolving doors at the postoffice violent momentum as they pass thru.

This is dangerous to others making entry or egress. Only a few days ago a small boy suffered a fractured arm when someone swung the door too rapidly. Please be more careful.

LIMA BEANE

To Office Seekers

MY FRIENDS: Candidates for nomination for various political offices are making their appearance in the field.

One of the big things you should bear in mind is that running down the other fellow who is a candidate for nomination for the same position will get you nowhere. Please refrain from making that sort of campaign.

LIMA BEANE

To Philanthropists

FOLKS: Right now is a good time for you to remember that the campaign for funds for my Social Service Bureau has not been successfully completed. More money is necessary for the relief of the needy due to unemployment.

Likewise, renewed efforts are being made in behalf of equipment for public playgrounds for the kiddies of my city.

WITH APOLOGIES

(By OH. OH. JACKENRIM)

A Page from The Diary of An An- quicted Reporter: Up, and a cold day. Belowstairs to a bargain club breakfast. And out, and abroad,

ABE MARTIN

Things have just about reached the point when there's no telling where the fellow who stops on an business and up. Life Ends has got so he can't keep his $14.

etopping, albeit, to watch the bread- line on lower Sixth-av. And mostly foreigners coming to the land of plenty. So thinking of the Celina man who moved to New York with his three children. And his pastor preached, saying that every fourth child born in New York was a foreigner. And he went home and told his wife they must be divorced, because he refused to be the father of a foreigner.

Into the sub to the Sinclair building, to find the President of that corporation, still ill at his Long Island home. So to lunch at the Princeton club, and a fine bunch of Americans, they seemeth to be. Silver grays, many intermixed with Youth. Just Freshmen now in the world of finance, manufacture and commerce.

To a tobacconists and sent an hundred Hedges to a lady friend who eats smoke in the most graceful way I ever did see it done. Yet enclosed no card. There's a Ritz in a skirt almost down to the ankles. Make another drop in yours.

Took a surface car for five blocks and enjoyed a much needed nap. So into the Castoria, and gaily greeted by W. T. Wiley, the eminent managing scrivenger of the Cincinnati Enquirer. Across the way to Page & Shaw's for a sweet remembrance to a very dear friend. So up the Avenue, gawkingly and dodgingly, divid- ing my attention twixt traffic and skirts.

A party of Vassar girls coming from the Grand Central. To see a play and buy. And dressed as modestly as a Lima crowd at a Prof. Laux matinee. That's a compliment for both Vassar and Prof. Laux's pupils.

Dined with a friend at a quiet place in the thirties. And he invited me to a Martini, almost as in the old days. But no Kresge price-tag, I noted. And went with him to see "Bulldog Drummond" a real mel- low-drammer with A. E. Matthews as the star. And my friend fell ill. From either the Martini or the fish. It must have been the fish, for I felt healthier than for many a day. So he dashed home to 193rd-st. Al- most to Buffalo. And I stayed and saw the Bulldog thru.

So out into the Gay White Way and into the Astor. Where I saw some movie semi-queens dancing the slow waltz and the inevitable trot. And their skirts were way down. Shoes, some white but more black. But the gowns almost nature itself. Over to the Palais Royal with a friend who insisted he wanted me. So he paid a convict charge of $1.50 each and 90 cts. for a grape juice highball. Making no protest, I paid the taxi bill of 40 cts. back to the beanery. And so to bed.

HEALTH TALKS

Common Sense Ways to Keep Well

TRY SLEEPING OUT.

Those who have ever slept out- doors any length of time are unanimous in their testimony that even the best ventilated sleeping room is far inferior in healthfulness to an outdoor sleeping porch, or an open tent or a window tent.

Time was, not so long ago, when outdoor sleeping was prescribed only for such diseases as tuberculosis and pneumonia. Of late, the value of outdoor sleeping for well persons of all classes and ages has come to be recognized.

Sleeping outdoors increases the power to resist disease and greatly promotes physical vigor, endurance and working power.

Lots of people become such fresh air "fiends" that they are not satisfied with sleeping outdoors merely during the summer, but find it enjoyable all the year round.

It is important that an outdoor sleeping place be protected from the wind on two or, in very windy places, three sides. But of course sleeping out does not reach its maximum efficiency if free currents of air are not secured. In cold weather a thick mattress, or two mattresses should be used. It is not only what is over the sleeper but also what is under that insures warmth.

The body should be warmly clad and the head and neck protected by a warm cap or helmet. To prevent the entrance of cold air under the bed clothes, one or more blankets might be extended at least two feet beyond the head, with a central slit for the head. Sheets should be well warmed in the winter-time before being used. Blankets next to the skin are not hygienic.

FORMER U. S. SENATOR A. J. GRONNA IS DEAD

LAKOTA, N. D.—Arrangements were to be completed today for the funeral of Asie J. Gronna, former United States senator from North Dakota, who died at his home here last night.

Mr. Gronna returned here last week after undergoing an operation at Rochester, Minn.

He was elected a representative in congress from North Dakota in 1904. In February, 1911, he was elected to fill a vacancy in the senate in which body he served until defeated in 1920 by E. F. Ladd.

A THOUGHT

As thy days, so shall thy strength be.—Deuteronomy 32:25

COME, I come! ye have called me long
I come o'er the mountains with light and song;
Ye may trace my step o'er the wakening earth.
By the winds which tell of the vio- let's birth.
By the primrose stars in the shadowy grass,
By the green leaves opening as I pass.

Sure Way To Get Rid Of Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it en- tirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dis- solve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

OVER-PAID
Over-paid sellers of over-priced stuff.
They override justice and law.
Whatever they get it is never enough.
To fill up their over-size maw;

In over-rich rooms full of overstuffed chairs
They live soft and over-stuffed lives;
They pass their loot over, in gener- ous shares,
To overdressed daughters and wives;

They quite overcome us with splen- dor and show
When dining where overhead's high!
Their cars overtake us wherever we go
And pass very scornfully by;

They ride, you might know it, on over-sized tires
Wherever they chance to be faring;
They over-reach others to gain their desires
In ways that are most over-bearing.

And meantime an overwrought, populace toils
In over-worked labor below them,
And, when we get weary of swelling their spoils,
We may, in good time, overthrow them!

BILL CALLS FOR STRIKE PROBE

Measure Reported to House Provides Investigation.

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—Governmental action to determine the cause of the present coal strike with a view of averting future strikes and bringing about lower coal prices, is provided for in a bill reported today by the house labor committee.

This bill, which the committee recommended for enactment, calls for a thorough investigation into the reasons for the present strike and a creation of a federal fact-finding agency with power to compel operators to supply complete information on all costs that enter into the production and distribution of coal.

The operators would be forced to furnish this information which they have withheld from the government under penalty of being driven from interstate commerce.

The bill was drawn by Representative Bland, Republican, who lives in the heart of the Indiana coal section. It has the approval of President Harding and is understood to fit in with his own plan for stabilizing the coal industry thru making it less seasonal.

Approval also has been given the bill by Secretary Hoover and by the coal miners, thru John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America.

Chairman Nolan, of the labor committee, said he would ask that the house would pass the bill within two weeks and send it to the senate with the request it be given speedy action there, in the hope that the bill can be passed and the fact finding agency started to work in time to influence settlement of the present coal strike.

CLAIMS BOARD TO BE FORMED

Will Pass on Seizures by U. S. and Germany.

WASHINGTON—(Associated Press)—Negotiations are under way between the United States and Germany, it was said in official circles today, looking to the organization of the mixed claims commission which will pass upon claims growing out of the seizure of property in the United States and Germany and upon claims filed with the United States government by American citizens as a result of the sinking of the Lusitania.

The commission probably will consist of three members—one American, one German and a neutral. Completion of a treaty providing for the commission will be followed by reference of the document to the senate for approval. It was said today, and by passage of enabling legislation. It was not expected that the treaty would be sent to the senate during the present session, however.

The amount of claims filed with the United States government for American property seized in Germany and growing out of the sinking of the Lusitania, aggregate about $415,000,000, but officials here have indicated they expected this sum would be scaled to around $100,000,000.

The American government has in its possession some $350,000,000 worth of the property of German citizens seized during the war. Settlement of the American claims, it is expected, will be provided for thru the disposition of this property and its return to its owners.

ZONE ACT TESTED

Cleveland Building Case Carried to Supreme Court.

COLUMBUS—(Associated Press)—Validity of city zoning ordinances which restrict building within certain zones are raised in a suit entered in the state supreme court today by Frank A. Mehling of Lakewood, Cleveland suburb, against the board of appeal and board of zoning appeals and the building inspector of that city.

Mehling wants to erect a two story store and apartment building and gasoline filling station on Clifton Boulevard, Lakewood, but the zoning boards and building inspector have refused to issue him a permit on the ground that the types of buildings proposed to be erected are prohibited in that zone. He asks for an order compelling issuance of the permits.

Inasmuch as the constitutionality of the ordinance is questioned, it is said decision in the case may also have a bearing upon similar ordinances in practically every city in the state.

LIMA MAN NAMED STATE OFFICER OF Y MEN CLUB

F. W. Harris, 319 South Jackson-st., has been elected treasurer of the state organization of Y Men's clubs of the Y. M. C. A., according to a dispatch from Toledo, where the convention is being held.

This is the first time an organization of these clubs has been attempted, Y. M. C. A. officials say. Harris did not attend the convention and had heard nothing of his election Friday.

WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, Mass.—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say "The market here has continued very strong and prices are somewhat higher again or the week, altho the volume of business has been a little less on account of reduced stocks with which to do business. In the west there has been very general buying with prices slightly higher than last week, fine wools selling generally at 35 to 42 cents for the best wools, according to what they are."

ATTEMPT IS MADE TO BURN NEWSPAPER OFFICE

LOS ANGELES, Calif.—Fire Chief H. J. Griffin and city detectives today were pushing a vigorous investigation into an attempt to burn the Los Angeles Record building shortly before midnight.

Lath and paper were piled high against the rear of the building and ignited. Flames were discovered shooting to the height of the two-story structure, by Charles Burkhardt, a passerby, who called the fire department.

Patrolman C. R. Stevens, who arrived at the scene immediately after Burkhardt had turned in an alarm, saw two figures fleeing along the Pacific Electric's elevated tracks which paralleled the newspaper building and gave chase, but they escaped.

COLLINS QUIZZED IN WILL CASE

Battle for Big Estate May Extend Over Week-End.

Perry Collins defendant in the Collins will case in common pleas court, took the stand in his own behalf Friday noon.

His testimony may be the last to be presented by the defense in the battle for the quarter million dollar estate left by Samuel Collins.

Testimony of Collins, who is past 67 years old, will consume the remainder of the day and may run over into Saturday, it is stated.

The case cannot be concluded until mid-week, counsel stated. Friday Dorothy Collins, the plaintiff, thru her attorneys is planning, it is said, to refute testimony of the defense calculated to prove Samuel Collins was incapable of judging for himself in the closing years of his life.

Examination of Perry Collins was along the same lines as that of preceding witnesses. Acts of his father, alleged to be queer, or erratic, were related.

Among the peculiarities testified to was that Samuel Collins objected to the use of a disc harrow to prepare a seed bed for oats. "You cannot raise any oats, using that thing," he is alleged to have told Perry Collins. "The ground should be plowed," the son says he asserted.

G. O. P. SENATORS FACE PROBLEM

Wondering Whether Newberry Case Caused New's Defeat.

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—There are fourteen Republican United States senators today who are trying to answer this political problem:

"Did the Newberry case have a decisive influence in bringing about the defeat of Senator Harry New of Indiana, and if so, what will it do to me?"

These senators are: Calder, New York; Crow, Pennsylvania; Dapont, Delaware; France, Maryland; Fruehly, New Jersey; Hale, Maine; Kellogg, Minnesota; Lodge, Massachusetts; McCumber, North Dakota; McLean, Connecticut; Page, Vermont; Pepper, Pennsylvania; Poindexter, Washington, and Townsend, Michigan.

Up until the results came ticking in from Indiana, the talk about popular reaction to the Newberry case did not interest the case hardened politicians of the senate who had weathered what they regarded as many a similar political storm. Today they are giving the Newberry matter another longer look.

Crow, of Pennsylvania, of course, is already practically out of the contest on account of ill health.

In some states the Newberry case will not figure seriously in others. In some it will not be a factor in the primary, but will be injected into the election by the Democrats. In others it will be the major issue of the primary and if the incumbent survives that, the general election.

RATE INVESTIGATION BY STATE BOARD DELAYED

COLUMBUS—The state public utilities commission today announced a further delay in its proposed investigation of grain and coal rates which were to have started May 9. The new date is June 27. Delay in entering upon the investigation has been occasioned by a recent decision of the United States supreme court curtailing authority of state commissions to determine railroad rates of interstate character.

The interstate commerce commission and committee from state commissioners still are engaged in studying the question and to work out a plan whereby the federal and state bodies may work without coming into conflict.

BECOME SALESMEN CALDWELL, Ohio.—Striking miners in this vicinity have turned to back-door salesmanship as a means of earning a living. They offer most anything for sale. Popular articles include gilt name plates for houses, and a patented lock for doors.

IRISH PLEA MADE TO AMERICANS

Stand Fast Against Conspiring Elements, Collins Says.

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—Michael Collins, chairman of the Irish provisional government in a message made public today thru the Irish diplomatic mission here, called upon "our kinsmen and friends of Ireland" to stand fast against the elements conspiring against a free Ireland.

The message charged that the anti-democratic elements in Ireland are striving to bring about civil war.

The text of Collins' message in part follows: "Whilst I have no desire whatever to ask those of your race and the many friends of our country living under other flags to alter their sincere convictions on any Irish question, I do appeal to all of them, to take no part in assisting or encouraging that element in our midst whose object is to destroy the inherent rights of the sovereign Irish people, the rights of free speech, free assembly, a free press, and free elections."

"TOO MUCH BUSINESS," SCREEN COMEDY OF MERIT

(By ESTHER WAGNER)
"TOO MUCH BUSINESS" is a revelation of the malleable art. It transplants a humorous magazine story to the screen without losing in the process a drop of the story's juice.

Forsooth, the story sprouts and blooms when transplanted until it becomes as a refreshing breeze in a theatre full of dead plots—a film so removed from the ordinary in treatment of theme and analysis of character that it must take rank as one of the outstanding films of recent months.

The photoplay was adapted from "John Henry and the Restless Sex," a magazine story by Earl Den Biggers. It is a story characteristic of the newer generation of magazine writers, who for the moment are proving more popular than such young fossils as Peter B. Kyne, Julian Street, Will and Wallace Irwin.

"Three Live Ghosts" Has Splendid Comedy

YOU know as well as I do, that a comedy showing real acting and artistry is a rarity in dead. And because "Three Live Ghosts" is so obviously funny and so remarkably well done from every angle, you really should make it a point to see it.

The picture, made from a stage play of the same name, tells of three soldiers, Billy, Spooky and Jimmie, who fought and, it was reported, died for their country. BUT, you see, they didn't die. They miraculously escape from prison camp and on a small steamer, the three of them come sailing home to London. Billy and Jimmie haven't changed a bit, but poor Spooky, the third 'live' ghost, having been severely shocked by a shell, has a few screws missing in the upper story, and a small boy would describe his mental deficiency and goes happily about, taking unto himself things that belong to someone else.

Old Favorites In "Two Kinds of Women"

WILL you take a look at the cast in "Two Kinds of Women"? It's certainly rich in old favorites, with Pauline Frederick, Tom Sahisch, Eugene Pallette, Charles Clary and Billy Elmer. Quite an array, certainly.

You will probably remember the story. It ran in The News as "Judith of Blue Lake Ranch," and was an interesting and absorbing serial. It's pictured version is just as exciting, with Pauline and her cohorts right on the job every minute. Don't think that the two kinds of women referred to are the good and bad. Not so. They are the ones who can and the ones who cannot. Miss Frederick, as Judith, is one of the can's. She's a lovely society girl who takes it upon herself to go out west and manage her own ranch, after her father's death. The ranch, Arthur Taintor Fools, Irvin Cobb, and Clarence Buddington Kelland, "Too Much Business" is a quaint whimsy in which business and romance are all beaded. The idiosyncracies of the head of a firm are exaggerated to burlesque proportions.

He is a testy old codger who fires his sales manager because the latter falls in love with his secretary. The young fellow has signed an option on the heart of the young lady to become effective on a certain day provided he has a certain income.

Not much of a story, you may argue. Its worth is in the screen recouping. Take any stenographer you know to see it and she will tell you Tully Marshall is just like her boss and Edward Horton is just like the office manager and Carl Gerard is just like the young fellow who knows the office manager's job better than he does.

Well, Jimmie goes home, to find his loving parent calling his spirit on the outskirts of the underworld. The other, Billy, goes to find his sweetheart, but instead of finding her, he finds himself in a tragedy.

And Spooky, — but watch Spooky. He's good. In fact, he furnishes many of the film's most delightful moments.

How these three live ghosts finally emerge from the mixup and come into their own makes a picture of sheer joy. Fine acting on the part of Cyril Chadwick, Norman Kerry and Anna Q. Nilsson further enhances the production. Then, too, "Three Live Ghosts" was photographed abroad, which is in itself a unique feature.

All in all, this little comedy-drama will furnish the whole family with just the kind of entertainment. It's showing at the Quilna again today and Saturday.

Can you recognize these well-known movie stars by their collures? If they faced about you'd see Gloria Swanson, upper left; Mary Miles Minter, upper right; Lila Lee, lower left, and Wanda Hawley.

evening and as in the previous encounter Buck stayed the time, limit of ten minutes. Patty Phelan, the lightweight of Lima refereed the bouts satisfactorily. The "Kid" and "Buck" will go to the mat for a decision either Friday or Saturday night.

There will be a special Saturday matinee for the school children and the kiddies. Everything at the Legion Festival will be in full swing. There will be a street parade at 5:30 this afternoon.

THEATRE DIRECTORY

AT THE MAJESTIC

Pearl White has the stellar role in "Know Your Men," appearing today and Saturday at the Majestic theatre. Also Ruth Roland in "The White Eagle."

AT THE RIALTO

"The Nut" with Douglas Fairbanks in a clever comedy role, is the feature attraction today and Saturday at the Rialto theatre. Also a Harold Lloyd comedy.

THOSE PRINCETON SENIORS

The senior class of Princeton has elected Douglas Fairbanks as its screen favorite, with Harold Lloyd second. Joan Barrymore led among the actors of the speaking stage with Gorge Arliss second while Marilyn Miller topped Pola Negri as favorite actress. Thus it appears that comedy is preferred to tragedy by the serious college senior.

Howard Chandler Christy, Charles Dana Gibson, James Montgomery Flagg, Flo Ziegfeld, W. L. George and Mary Roberts Rinehart will pose girls in their idea of beauty for the Selznick news reel.

REELOGRAPHS

Marie Prevost's next will be "They're Off," an auto racing story. She will be supported by Kenneth Harlan and Philo McCullough.

The week's best bid for publicity: Buster Keaton, froze an ear at Truckee recently. He returned from Death Valley the other day and the same ear was so sun-burned it had begun to peel.

Marguerite La Motte is to be featured in "The Vengeance of the Deep."

Irene Fenwick and Helen Ferguson are to support Charles Jones in "West."

"The Meat Hunters of Pago-Pago" is the attractive title of a Pathe Review dealing with sharks.

"Oh! Oh! Cindy!"—at the Faurot Tonight

THE musical extravaganza, "Oh! Oh! Cindy," with a cast of over one hundred and fifty prominent Lima people, will make its initial appearance at the Faurot Opera House this evening, and second performance tomorrow night.

Spring Festival and Carnival

LARGE crowds are the vogue at Murphy Park and the mid-week way at the American Legion Spring Festival was completely filled last night. The riding devices were kept busy all evening long and appeared to be the favorite recreation. "The Flapper Club" and "Over the Rapids," the two merry making fun houses also had their share of patronage. The machines are of the latest models and of the safety first manufacture. They send their patrons away laughing for they produce some sensation.

"Beautiful Bagdad," the famous Thompson and Dundy attraction from Coney Island is a production de luxe and the programme is so varied that one must witness the performances to realize what a splendid show it is.

The trained animal circus, the carnival side-show, George, the Monkey-man Prince, the giant prize bull and the athletic show make as fine a line-up of attractions as the auspices could desire for their open air festival.

In the athletic stadium last night Sailor Grant, who had met Eddie Murray, once more showed his superiority by knocking out Kid Bowers in the second round of a four round bout. Sailor Grant has been engaged for the balance of the week here to meet all comers at from 153 to 165 pounds. Last night Kid Murphy was on the lookout for Johnnie Daniels who did not wrestle him last, but has promised to be on hand tonight and to the man in the white tights. Daniels is a Lima boy and a clever chap as likewise is Kid

Bowers. "Buck" Buckmaster and Kid Murphy were matched again last

DARING MEN WIN FINANCE FAME

Life of E. H. Harriman Pointed to as Proof.

COURAGE CALLED LIMITLESS

Morgan Bearded by Railway Wizard, Forbes Says.

(By E. C. FORBES)

NEW YORK. (Special.)—That many things have usually been extraordinary courage was the theme of a recent article in this column. I've just been reading the newly issued biography of the late Edward H. Harriman, the railway wizard, and I could not but note time and time again that the author, George Kennan, gave instances where Harriman exhibited conspicuous courage.

Harriman was a little fellow. Yet he showed tremendous gameness whenever the need arose. He early became daring and was not afraid of the boxing ring; he was not afraid of unruly rings; he was not afraid of a grave emergency, when the captain of a ship refused to take the risk of going to the rescue of certain parties. Harriman personally took the helm and assumed all responsibility.

The all-powerful J. P. Morgan held no terror for little Ned Harriman. On more than one occasion, Harriman bearded the greatest of financiers in his den and twisted his tail. Such dignitaries as multimillionaire railway directors or intrenched railway presidents were held in no awe by Harriman. Usually, they became as putty in his hands.

The memorable Northern Pacific panic really sprang from Harriman's limitless courage. When the late J. P. Morgan and James J. Hill thwarted Harriman by gaining control of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railway and refused, point-blank to share control with Harriman, he set out to capture, in the open market, control of the Hill road which had gained control of the C. B. & Q.

This road was the Northern Pacific, dominated lock, stock and barrel by Morgan, Hill and their mighty associates.

Would a few passages illustrating Harriman's courage interest you? The following brief extracts reveal I think, something of this phase of the most amazing railway figure America has ever produced.

"On one occasion," (says one of his associates.) "Mr. Harriman described to me very graphically his killing of a large Yakutat bear in Alaska—an incident which, on account of his personal modesty, is not generally known. The story, if published, would illustrate a side of his character which when occasion offered was quite prominent—that of great personal courage. From my own observation and that of others I am convinced that he was wholly without fear. In time of war he would undoubtedly have been a splendid general. Like Napoleon and Grant, under the most trying circumstances he was at his best—cool, deliberate, and calculating—with an intensely patriotic inspiration which would have impelled him to make any sacrifice for his country."

"The fearlessness and decision of character shown by Mr. Harriman in taking full charge of the ship and steering her thru thirteen miles of uncharted and unknown water, when the captain and the pilot declined to take the responsibility for such risky navigation, were thoroughly characteristic of the man. There seemed to be nothing that he was afraid to do, and nothing that he did not know how to do.

"We were constantly surprised," (says Dr. C. Hart Merriam, writing of the Harriman expedition to Alaska.) "by his physical strength and fondness and aptitude for out-of-doors sports. Throughout the voyage he was alert, enthusiastic, and venturesome and often took risks which many of us thought a man in his position should avoid. If a thing were worth seeing, he wanted to see it. If a difficult or dangerous trip were to be taken, by launch or on foot, he was almost certain to be in the lead."

Jacob H. Schiff said of Harriman: "His courage was without limit, and when he was once convinced of the correctness of a view—which, however, he never hesitated to change if he could be shown to be in error—nothing could turn him from the way he deemed right and proper in order to assure the accomplishment of his purpose. His wisdom and courage in emergencies were amazing. Indeed, his capacities appeared to grow with the magnitude and difficulties of the situations he was at times called upon to aid in solving."

In short, Harriman began to fight his best only about the time you or I would be tempted to give up. Is that one reason why he accomplished more?

NEW LINE-UP AT GENOA PLANNED

Britain May Make Terms With Germany and Russia.

ULTIMATUM AWAITS FRANCE

Will Be Denounced if She Rejects Program.

(By HENRY WOOD)

GENOA.—(United Press)—Premier Lloyd George today was reported to have prepared a "surprise" for the French, to be sprung tomorrow when Louis Barthou returns and the deliberations of the Genoa conference are resumed.

Having been forced into a corner by the Russians on the one hand and by the new Franco-Belgian alliance on the other, Lloyd George is said to have "up his sleeve" one of those dramatic coups for which he has become famous.

The nature of the "surprise" Lloyd George has in store for the French was not disclosed at the British delegation's headquarters, but it was hinted that Barthou, upon his return, would find "a new lineup" at Genoa.

PROBABLE SCHEME

The suggestion was that Lloyd George would call for a showdown. If France agreed to meet with the allies at San Remo to discuss reparations and to sign the allied note to Russia, the British will offer generous reduction—possibly cancellation of France's debt to England.

If, on the other hand, France flaunts her new alliance in Lloyd George's face and, besides, wrecking the Genoa conference, refuses to go to San Remo and imposes too selfish conditions in connection with the non-aggression pact, the British

TWO MEET DEATH WITH SMILE

Murderers Pay Penalty in Chair at Columbus.

COLUMBUS.—(Associated Press)—George Bush, 41, of Youngstown, and John Valden, 26, of Columbus, negro murderers, were electrocuted at the Ohio penitentiary early today.

Both men met death without noticeable fear. Bush entered the death chamber with a smile on his face. He walked alone. Turning to Major Walter Coffey of the Volunteer Prison League, he said "aren't you proud of me?"

Valden smiled faintly as he came thru the "green door" and without uttering a word sat down in the chair. The black mask and the electrodes were adjusted and two minutes later he was pronounced dead.

Both men, shortly before their execution, bemoaned the fact that they were not converted before they entered the penitentiary, declaring fate would have decreed otherwise had such been the case.

Bush was convicted of murdering Lucius Lee, another Youngstown negro, after Lee had caused Bush's arrest on a theft charge involving $20. Valden clubbed Charles D. Baker, an insurance collector to death, after he had called Baker to his home to pay an insurance premium.

THATCHER BOY FOUND

It Isn't The PRICE That We Direct Your Attention To So Much As It Is What Is BEHIND It In The Way Of STYLE, QUALITY And VALUE.

The price of a shoe means nothing until you see what is behind it. What is behind the price of Newark shoes? (1st) The saving we effect on annual purchases of nearly five million pairs. (2nd) The lower margin of profit on which we can sell in consequence of our huge volume; and (3rd) The economy that results from the scientific, low cost operation of our 400 stores. These combined savings go into your pocket, where they belong. It is through this greater value giving that we have built up the largest retail shoe business in the world. Why pay more for the same quality or pay the same price and get less? Newark shoes are America's greatest value. Let us show you.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart:

I AM a young married woman. My mother is a widow and depends upon me for her support. I am glad to do my share in supporting her but one of our sisters who happens to be a widow of 45, and us refuses to do her share. You understand that is not fair. What can we do to make her pay her share?

ANXIOUS
I NEED it is not fair for your sister to shirk her rightful responsibility in this matter and she should be made to realize this. Neither she, nor any of you, should look upon this as a duty and obligation to be dreaded but instead as something which you should be willing and glad to do. Your mother probably underwent many hardships for all of you and certainly it is not asking too much for you to repay her by providing for her needs now, when she is dependent upon her children.

Do not for one moment give your mother reasons for believing that she is a burden to you. This would hurt and humiliate her beyond words. It is not fair nor just for your sister to evade her responsibility and yet it would be better for the rest of you to do more than your share than to permit your mother to think that she is a care.

Dear Miss Smart:
I am a very discontented woman and am coming to you for advice. I have been married five years. My husband was always good to me, but his one fault was drink. He would leave for 10 or 12 days at a time on parties. The last time was four months ago and I sold the furniture and the house was empty when he returned. Now he seems to have changed and is pleading with me to take him back. But I feel I cannot trust him again. What shall I do?

If you have any love at all for your husband you will trust him. We all make mistakes and if the ones we love most of all do not believe in us and trust us when we see our mistakes and are willing to begin over, very often we fall back into the same old habits. The only fair thing is to give your husband another chance—not only give him another chance but help him to forget the past and think of what the future holds for him if only he plays the part of a man.

YOU ARE MY PRISONER! PRISCILLA DEAN In "WILD HONEY"

AT THE LYRIC STARTING SUNDAY

HERE ARE HINTS FOR JUNE BRIDES

(BY MARIAN HALE)

June and her wedding day. No other day is invested with quite the significance of that day.

Neither does any other day or ceremony yield the "multitude of petty problems which must be settled by the bride and her family."

Wedding forms have remained practically the same for years. If there has been any change it is a trend, of late, toward the less formal.

The order of procession is that used from the beginning: The ushers lead, two by two. The bridesmaids follow and then the maid or matron of honor.

If there are children in the party they should follow the maid of honor and be immediately followed by the bride and her father or the person by whom she is given away.

The clergyman and bridegroom, with his best man, can approach the altar from another way than that used by the bride the effect will be better. If this is not practical they may walk down the aisle a moment or two ahead of the ushers.

In grouping about the altar during the ceremony the party should be quite evenly balanced.

The white ribbons which form the bridal aisle are dropped when the bride reaches the altar.

For an outdoor wedding the form is quite the same and the attire, is that used for an indoor event, the only difference being that the ushers at some of the very early outdoor weddings have worn white trousers with a dark coat and hat.

An outdoor wedding is always more effective if its background of shrubbery is a natural one. However, a florist can arrange one with quite a natural appearance.

In her wedding gown, selection of material and choice of cut, the bride is quite without limitation. Fabrics range from sheer white organdie to heavy satins. The beloved tulle veil is the choice of many fashionable brides. Lace is used much in outer clothing, a trim suit, three blouses, an afternoon gown, two morning or general-wear frocks, a dinner dress and a long cloak are quite adequate. There should be at least two hats.

Miss Mildred Downing, of W. Wayne-st., entertained the members of the Normal Class of Central High School, Wednesday. Music, dancing and games were enjoyed through the evening and at a late hour a delicious luncheon was served.

Those present included Misses H. M. Mader and Agnes Nichols, normal instructors; Misses Lavonne Irwin, Olive Blank, Glendene Stants, Florence Miles, Alice Roush, Frances Henry, Mrs. Baxter, Gladys Fritz, Ruth Wentworth, Bernice Weaver, Lenore Larue, Ruby Ryerly, Carrie Beverly, Margaret Thomas, Olga Moser, Retha Moyer, Marie Poliz, Eula Hurlbarger, Juanita Alspaugh, Iva Havestick, Evelyn Rish and the hostess, Mildred Downing.

A group of women golfers held an all day gathering at the Shawnee Country club Thursday to organize and make plans for the coming season. Because of the inclement weather only a small group was present. Mrs. W. Holmes Mackenzie, captain of the Women Golfers announced that a match of some kind will be arranged for each Thursday. A business session has been planned for Thursday of next week and it is hoped that all women golfers will be present.

In celebration of the birthday anniversary of Betty May and June May Augsberger, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Augsberger, of Holmes-av. Mrs. Augsberger welcomed a group of guests at a pleasant gathering, Thursday afternoon.

The guests included Mrs. R. Iler and son, Bob. Mrs. Ed Sellers and daughters Louise and Maxine. Mrs. Annie Tomlinson. Mrs. Catherine Koek and daughter Roberta, of Toledo and Mrs. G. C. Settemire and daughter Lavita, of Wapakoneta.

Mrs. F. N. Sieber, of W. Spring-st., delightfully entertained the members of the C. D. D. club at her home, Thursday afternoon. Euchre was the afternoon's pleasure. Mrs. H. J. Ehlman holding high score among the members and Mrs. Thomas Zink among the guests. At the conclusion of the playing a delicious repast was served.

The next meeting of the club will be held in a fortnight with Mrs. J. B. Dugan, of W. Market-st.

The Little Light Bearers of Trinity M. E. church will meet with Mrs. J. G. Keller, of 852 W. North-st., Saturday at 2:30 p. m.

Misses Rose and Charlotte Sieber, of W. Spring-st., are home from a short stay in Columbus.

A SUBSTITUTE
If you haven't an ironing board use a thick pad of newspapers on an ordinary table and cover them with an ironing sheet as you would a board.

CLEANING BRONZE
Hot soap suds are the best medium for cleaning genuine bronze. Sweet oil, applied with a brush, is also cleansing. The oil should be removed with a soft cloth.

The suit should be of some dark fabric, well tailored and quite plain. Leave the ornate suits to women who have many clothes.

The best line for the summer bride to seek in her suit is that of the snug hipped jacket, loose at the waistline, but snug at the hip. This is an approved line for fall. Sleeves will be a matter of utmost importance on her afternoon gown. An unusual sleeve, particularly a large one, snuggs of what is new and, like the snug hip, will hold over into the fall and winter.

One of the two hats must be purchased with the suit and afternoon gown in mind. The same hat should serve for each.

If the bride allows herself only one dinner gown it preferably should be dark, even black, and this gown should be kept in mind with the purchase of the second hat which should be in the nature of a restaurant hat.

COOKIES

Drop Variety Easiest to Make

Do you like cookies? They are easy to make and you'll find them always convenient in the house. Stale, dry cookies can be crumbled, moistened with fruit juice and served with whipped cream. This makes a truly delightful and novel dessert.

Drop cookies are quicker and easier to make than rolled cookies.

DROP NUT COOKIES
Two tablespoons butter, 1-2 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1-4 cup milk, 1 cup finely chopped nuts, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Cream butter and sugar, add eggs and beat with a Dover beater. Mix and sift flour, baking powder and salt. Add the first mixture. Mix well, taking care to scrape the mixing spoon and having every bit of the dough thoroughly mixed. Add milk and vanilla and mix again carefully. Stir in nuts.

Drop from a teaspoon onto an oiled and floured baking sheet and bake 15 or 20 minutes in a moderately slow oven.

DROP MOLASSES COOKIES
One-half cup sugar, 1-2 cup butter, 1 cup molasses, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1-2 teaspoon ginger, 1-4 teaspoon cloves, 2 teaspoons soda, 1 cup boiling water, 2-1-2 cups flour, 2 eggs, 1-2 cup chopped raisins.

Cream the butter and sugar. Add molasses and mix well. Mix and sift flour and spices. Add to first mixture.

A piece of fine wire pressed lightly down from each side on a bar of soap will cut it neatly.

MEAT CUTS
Your fish steak should be ordered cut thick for the same reason you prefer thickly cut beefsteak.

GOOD OMELET
If you would have light, thoroughly cooked omelet shake the pan gently while cooking and raise the cooked portions to allow the uncooked mixture to run over the hot pan.

LEARN A WORD A DAY
TODAY'S word is JEOPARDIZE. It's pronounced — jep-ar-dize, with accent on the first syllable. It means to expose to loss or injury; to risk.

It comes from — Old French "jeu pari," an even game; a game in which the chances are even.

It's used like this — "Some New Yorkers are afraid the St. Lawrence deep waterway would jeopardize their port's foreign trade pre-eminence."

OUR FIRST YEAR

BY A BRIDE

SEEDS OF DISSENTION

Left alone at home for the first time since my marriage, I was lonely. Of course Jack would have married Mrs. Herrod instead of me had she been his own age.

Why hadn't I seen it before it was too late?

I fell to crying bitterly, then went to bed, and pretended to be sound asleep when Jack came home. I murmured something inarticulate when he spoke to me. And I con- outlaged asleep until nearly day-break.

Fortunately, the next day was a holiday and we slept late. It rained, weather that ordinarily we would have welcomed with joy, for it made a day we could have to ourselves.

But my joy did not materialize, for my thoughts of the previous evening continued to harass me. What had Jack said to Mrs. Herrod? What had she said to Jack?

Sleeplessness and the need to tell Jack of those bills made my nerves ragged. Jack's soft whistling irritated me. When he spoke, my replies were far from honeyed.

Once in a while my husband's good nature annoys me. He is exact, practical, and when he is absorbed in his own thoughts, he has an abrupt way of meeting a question with quick concentration, of answering it briefly and precisely. It was so that morning.

And as any wife would have done, I concluded that he was still thinking about his game and the lady of the previous evening!

At last the weather cleared a little. We decided to take a long walk.

I adjusted my hat, put on my gloves, remembered my adorned string of mock pearls which I wear everywhere—I go.

But in adjusting them, rather clumsily with my gloved fingers, they caught on a button of my coat, the string broke, and the tiny globules of moonlight rolled to the far corners of the room!

Tears came to my eyes. Jack half shaved, hurried to my assistance. We could not find all of them. We never did find three of them. Jack's patience, exasperated me. I could hardly coax him to relinquish the search for the missing three.

Surely, my husband must be the very best man in the world. That morning he was almost too good. He could not or he would not perceive that I was decidedly out of temper. And had he seen, I'm sure he would have hunted up some plausible excuse for my nervous tension.

THE WHITE DESERT

BY COURTNEY RILEY COOPER

The whistles screamed. Up the grade, four engines to a plow, the jets of steam billowing upward, coughing columns of smoke-leaping blackly up the mountain side.

A jarring crash that all but threw the men of the first crews from their feet, and the Death Trail had been set. Then churning, snarling, roaring, the snow flying in cloud-like masses past them, the first plow hit its way deep into the tremendous mass, while sweating men, Barry Houston among them, crammed coal into the open, angry fire boxes, and streamed on greasy tracks—and the cavalcade went on.

A hundred yards—the beams rocking down the snow above and all but covering the engines which forced their way thru.

A shout. A pull at the whistle, creeping forth its note of victory, then, the blare of the whistles, a roar rounded in a greater sound, a roar that reverberated thru the hills like the bellow of a thousand thunders, the cracking and crashing of trees, the splintering of great rocks as the snows of the granite spires above the Death Trail loosed at last and crashed downward in an all-consuming rush of destruction. Trees gave way before the constantly gathering mass of white and joined in the downfall. Great boulders, abutting rocks, slides of shale! On it went, thundering toward the valley and gleaming lake, at last to crash there; to send the ten-foot thicknesses of ice splintering like broken glass; to pyramid, to spray the whole nether world with ice and snow and scattering rocks; then to settle, a jumbled conglomerate mass of destructiveness, robbed of its prey.

And the men shouted, and screamed and beat at one another in their frenzy of happiness, in spite of the fact that the track had been torn away from behind them as though it never had existed, and that they now were cut off entirely from the rest of the world. Only one snowshod remained, with but a feeble bulwark of drifts before it.

Night faded. Dawn came and then—then sun! Clear and brilliant with the promise of spring again and of melting snows. The fight was over.

Morning of the second day—and again the sunshine.

Tabernacle was in the distance while men and women waded thru the soggy snows to be the first to reach the train. Eagerly, Barry searched the thronging crowd, at last to catch sight of a gigantic figure, his wolf-dog beside him.

"Ba'tiste!" he cried. "Ba'tiste!"

Great arms opened wide. A sob came from the throat of a giant.

"Mon Barree! Mon Barree!" It was all he could say for a moment.

"We've won, Ba'tiste. The line's open—they'll be running trains thru before night. And if she keeps her promise—"

"She?" Ba'tiste stared down at him. They had drawn away from the rest of the excited, noisy throng.

"She?" You mean I've been taking care of her, haven't you? I found her—she promised that she would tell the truth for me when I got back, that she would explain the lease and contract and tell Medame that it was all a lie. She—"

But Ba'tiste Renaud shook his head.

"No, Barree. Et's the too late. I have jus' come—from there. I have close her eyes."

CHAPTER XX

Dead! Houston saw Medame Robinette pass in the distance, and his eyes followed her until she had rounded the curve by the dead aspens—the eyes of lost hope.

"Without a word," it spelled blackness for Houston. "I—I suppose you've taken charge of everything."

"Oui! But I have look at nothing—"

"I just had something here," Houston fumbled in his pockets. "She would, want it around her neck—"

But the sudden glare in Ba'tiste's eyes stopped him as he brought forth the crucifix and its tangled chain. The giant's hands raised,

His big lips twisted. A lunge and he had come forward, savage, almost bestial.

"You!" he bellowed. "Where you get that? Hear me, where you get that?"

"From her," she—

"Then come! Come—quick with me!" He almost dragged the younger man away, hurrying him toward the sled and its broad-backed old horses. "We must go to the cabin, oui—yes! Hurry!" Houston saw that he was trembling. "Et's the thing I look for—the thing I look for!"

"Ba'tiste! What do you mean?"

THEN CHURNING, SNARLING, ROARING, THE SNOW FLYING IN CLOUDLIKE MASSES PAST THEM, THE FIRST PLOW BIT ITS WAY INTO THE TREMENDOUS MASS.

"My Juliette," came hoarsely.

"Et's my Juliette's!"

Already they were in the sled, the wolf-dog perched between them, and hurrying along the mushy road. Two miles they went, the horses urged to their greatest speed.

At last came the little clearing—and the cabin. Ba'tiste already was within.

Houston entered, and dropped beside the older man, already dragging forth the drawers of the bureau and pawing excitedly among the trinkets there. A watch, a ring, and a locket with a curly strand of baby hair.

"My Pierre—see was my Pierre!"

"What's that?" Houston had raised suddenly, was staring in the direction of an old commode in the corner. At the door the wolf-dog nudged and snarled, Ba'tiste, bending among the lost trinkets that once had been his wife's, did not hear. Houston grasped him by the shoulder and shook him excitedly.

"Ba'tiste! Ba'tiste! There's someone hiding—over there in the corner. I heard sounds—look at Golemar!"

"Hiding? No. There is no one here—no one but Ba'tiste and his memories. No one—"

"I tell you I heard someone. The commode moved. I know!"

He rose, only to suddenly veer and flatten himself against the wall. The yellow blaze of aimless revolver fire had spurted from the corner; then the plunging form of a gaunt, gangling, limping man, who rushed past Houston to the door, swerved there, and once more raised the revolver. But he did not fire.

A furry, snarling thing had leaped at him, knocking the revolver from his hand—its plunging ascent. Then a cry—a gurgling growl. Teeth had clenched at the throat of the man; together they rolled thru the door to the snow without. Golemar, his hold broken by the fall, striving again for the death clutch, the man screaming in sudden frantic fear.

"Take him off!" The voice of the thin-visaged Fred Thayer was shrill now. "Take him off—I'll tell you about it—she did it—she did it! Take him off!"

"Golemar!" Ba'tiste had appeared in the doorway. Below the dog whirled in obedience to his command and edged back, teeth still bared, eyes vigilant, waiting for the first movement of the man on the sled.

Houston went forward and stood peering down at the frightened, huddled form of Thayer, wiping the blood from the fang wound in his neck.

"You'll tell about what?" came with sudden incisiveness.

The man stared, suddenly aware that he had spoken of a thing that had been mentioned by neither Ba'tiste nor Houston. His lips worked crookedly. He tried to smile, but it ended only in a misshapen snarl.

"I thought you fellows were looking for something. I—I—wanted to get the dog off."

"We were. We've found it. Ba'tiste," and Houston forced back the tigerish form of the big French-Canadian. "You walk in front of us. I'm afraid to trust you right now—And don't turn back. Do you promise?"

The big hands worked convulsively. The eyes took on a newer, fiercer glare.

With an effort the Canadian obeyed, the wolf-dog trotting beside him, Houston following, one hand hooked about the buckle of the thinner man's belt, the other half supporting him as he limped and reeled thru the snow.

"It's my hip—" The man's mind had gone to trivial things. "I sprained it—about ten days ago. I'd been living over here with her up till the storm. Then I had to be at camp. I—"

"That was your child, then?"

Fred Thayer was silent. Barry Houston repeated the question commandingly.

"Whose would you think it was?" They reached the sled, and Ba'tiste pointed to the seat.

"In there," he ordered. "Ba'tiste will walk. Ba'tiste afraid—too close." And then, in silence, the trip to town was made, at last to draw up in front of the boarding house. Houston called to a bystander.

"Phone the sheriff we want him. It has to do with the Renaud murder."

The loafer sprang to the street and veered across, shouting the news as he went, while Ba'tiste made hurried arrangements regarding the silent form of the lonely cabin. A few moments later, the makeshift boarding house lobby was crowded while Barry Houston, reverting to the bitter lessons he had learned during the days of his own cross-examinations, took his place in front of the accused man.

"In the first place, Thayer," he commanded. "You might as well know one thing. You're caught. The goods are on you."

"I don't know anything about it. She told me she did it—that those were Mrs. Renaud's things."

"Ah! Then you have nev' seen that ring, which my Juliette, she wore on her finger. Ah, no?"

"Thus the battle progressed, Ba'tiste storming, the frowning, sullen captive in the chair, replying in monosyllables, or refusing to answer at all.

The afternoon grew old. The sheriff arrived—and still the contest went on. Then, with a sudden break of reserve, Thayer leaned forward and rubbed his gnarled hands, one against the other.

"All right!" he snapped. "Have it your way. No use in trying to lay it on the woman—you could prove an alibi for her. You're right. I killed them both."

VALLEY OF PUPPY-DOGS

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

Nick lifted it carefully, and there were six of the loveliest little brown puppies.

The dove again flew ahead of the Twins and soon they came to the fourth one, of the Seven Valleys, the Valley-of-Puppy-Dogs.

"All I can say is—come as soon as you can," said the dove. "You have a long journey ahead and Twelve Toes and his wicked relatives have put everything they can in your path to delay you."

This sounded very alarming—not that the Twins were afraid of dogs—they loved them—but what could the bird mean by his words?

Away flew the dove to wait for them on the other side of the valley. Nancy's quick ears caught a faint crying. "It's under the basket!" she said, pointing to an old bushel measure.

Nick lifted it carefully, and there were six of the loveliest little brown puppies that any little girl or boy could wish to see.

"You darlings!" cried Nancy, cuddling them all at once. "Oh, Nick, aren't they dear! Don't you wish we could take them along?"

"Yes," answered Nick. "I wonder where the mother is and if she'd care. I'll go and look for her."

In a moment he called back, "Nancy, come here! Quick!"

Away flew Nancy only to discover that Nick had found another basket of little white fluffy poodles no bigger than mice, which came in for

of them, each more interesting than the last—black dogs with short hair, white dogs with long hair, brown dogs with no hair. Bulldog puppies, alreidae puppies, collie puppies and grayhound puppies; pom dogs, peke dogs, chow dogs, Boston dogs. Dogs of every kind and description.

You may imagine that a little boy and girl sent on an errand wouldn't get very far.

Eena Meena, the old magician, saw them from his star, and telephoned the news to Haloo Haloo, Haloo Haloo telephoned it to Tricky Tricky and Tricky Tricky telephoned it to Twelve Toes, the Sorcerer.

Twelve Toes was tickled most to death. "They'll never get to the Kingdom of Korknott," he cried. "Those Twins will stay with those pups forever!"

CARTER & CARROLL

KIWANIS DEFEAT ELKS 12 TO 5

HARRY GOLDSBERRY'S Kiwanians did an Indian war dance around Roy Enoch's Elks Thursday afternoon at the Murphys yard, and when the dust cleared away the scoreboard proclaimed in bold figures that the antlered tribe had been clubbed, 12 to 5. Errors, plenty of 'em, nice juicy ones, made the Elks easy picking. The Kiwanis club committed offenses of omission and commission, too, but they had only six, whereas their enemy made eight.

Their victory places the Kiwanians on a par with the Rotarians, who thumped the Lions in the opener.

The victorious team scored heavily in the first three rounds, clouting the offerings of Eddie Ashton for five of their eight safeties. They enjoyed a battling bee in the sixth, winning in three. The Elks did not connect with "Red" Hoffman's team until the fifth. They repeated the error of counters in that frame and were in the seventh.

A hit by Herrett, followed by a single off the bat of Faurot, gave the Kiwanians their run in the first round. The Elks were partially responsible for the three in the second. He nicked Slocanier in the head, issued successive passes to Hoffman and Herrett, and then after Phillips went out by the whiff route, the Babe Ruth of the Kiwanians whose record for the day included three doubles, shot the ball to right center for a two-play hit, the trio dribbling across Home.

The third was little short of a massacre. Three Elks errors were responsible for the three runs, Ashton got the first man, Faurot on top, Goldsberry hit thru short, Herrett got him down, and he added to third on a wild pitch, then Goldsberry, filling the hole, Hoffman hit to Ashton, who offered, allowing Goldsberry to score. Again the paths were drunk, oneker scored on a W. P. Herrett, off. Phillips was safe on Currier's error, permitting Schenk and Hoffman to score. Thomas delivered with a double, bringing in Phillips. Thomas went out on a peg m left to third.

Madigan put himself in line for a home run when in the fifth, Ashton and Cook on base, he hit for two sacks, scoring himself. He went to third on Herrett's error in handling Stolly's under and Bruce Reynolds' saced him in. The final pair for Elks were gathered in the seventh. Smith singled to left. Madigan carried one off Huff's glove. Madigan was out on a Heider's ice on a drive by Bob Baker, who at third. The latter tallied in Faurot was putting Reynolds at first. McBeth scored Baker on a hit to right. Cook ended the afternoon's pleasure by laying little one in front of the plate.

Clever Fighters Opposed In London Ring For European Honors

CARPENTIER

UPON the outcome of Georges Carpentier's fight on May 11, in the arena in London, with Ted "Kid" Lewis, will depend the French gladiator's plan to challenge the winner of the Greb-Tunney encounter for light heavyweight honors, set for New York on the night of May 23.

In case Georges should lose to the "Kid" he would of course be out of line for a meeting with the New York victor, but he is in correspondence with the managers of the two prospective participants in this encounter on the evident supposition that there is no doubt he will acquit himself satisfactorily, to himself, against his next opponent.

He fought to, for Lewis, the game, clever fighter, has figured hitherto in the welterweight class and at present is only European champion in that, the world's title, which he and Jack Britton exchanged between them for some time, being held now by the latter. Ted has a reputation for extraordinary speed, but so has Carpentier.

The odds are around 8 to 5 on the Frenchman, but there are plenty of takers at this figure. The Lewis men say Carpentier will have no such set-up as with Beckett, the "Kid" being far cruder and tougher. Besides, there are those who assert Dempsey's jolt did Georges no good.

Carpentier's friends say their man will win by a knockout in about eight rounds. Lewis rooters predict that Ted will do the same thing in about four.

Dempsey has been asked for his opinion, but hasn't given it. The papers say it's certain he thinks the Frenchman the better fighter.

'21 CHAMPS APPEAR

TOLEDO—Chief interest in the women's national bowling tournament today lies in the appearance of Miss Pearl Lay and Miss Grace Legge, of Chicago, 1921 champions.

Paired in the doubles at the Cleveland tournament the Chicago young women established a new two-woman record of 1,079, which is 16 pins better than the mark thus far in the present meeting.

Bowlers from Cleveland were on the first shift in doubles which started at 9 o'clock this morning. Detroit, Chicago and Schenectady entrants are to appear on later shifts.

Intimate Chats With Rex Beach About The Great Outdoors

BY MORRIS ACKERMAN

In order to insure themselves fishing and hunting opportunities, thousands of American sportsmen have purchased fishing and hunting properties or memberships in angler's or hunter's clubs.

Rex Beach, however, has gone both groups one better. He has acquired and placed on his hunting grounds complete movable outfits that make his conquests along these lines comparatively unlimited.

Down at Okracoke, on the North Carolina coast, he has a complete wild fowling outfit, while up on the "public domain" of Quebec he has a cabin completely furnished. This cabin in reality is a cache, from which Mr. Beach can draw his supplies and room at will.

"It has taken me some while to make my outfit complete," says Beach. "At Okracoke I am prepared to hunt almost any place a boat will float. There I have a houseboat, a towing launch, a steam launch, decoy skiffs, a single battery box, a double battery box and complete stands of various duck, geese and brant decoys."

"And the beauty of the outfit is that I can take any or all of the equipment in shallow water—none of the craft drawing over nine inches of water."

Anyone who has hunted along the coast can appreciate what a complete outfit this is, and can imagine the length of time it has taken Mr. Beach to get this equipment together. We assume, however, that he has an experienced engineer.

"When a motor doesn't run, assuming she has gas and spark, I'm thru," he confides.

"Up at my Quebec camp, my outfit for gray, brook and brown trout fishing, moose, deer, bear, partridge and duck hunting will be just as well equipped for the northern sport as Okracoke is for the southern."

"With the two camps—both really short runs from New York—I will be able, in a modest way to partly appease my love for hunting and fishing, to say nothing of enjoying the natural restfulness that comes from fellowship with the Great Outdoors."

Jockey Riding Brand New Stunt For Our Bobbed Haired Flappers

(BY BOB DORMAN)

NEW YORK—One more strong hold of the male is about to fall.

The wise ones knew it was bound to come, ever since they heard that France had granted jockey licenses to women.

Sam H. Harris is the originator of the latest novelty in the way of American jockeys.

WILL RIDE FILER

Having recently purchased from Harry Payne Whitney the 2-year-old True Filer, Harris let it be known that he was going to send a regular flapper, bobbed hair and all, to Belmont Park to exercise him.

Belmont Park is all excitement over the news. A haberdasher in the neighborhood is reported to have made so much money that he is contemplating a trip to California. Heretofore he has never been able to scrape together enough jack to get any farther away than Coney Island.

Miss Emma Haig was the cause of the flurry in turf circles.

ONLY WOMAN POLIST

Miss Haig, by the way, is some horsewoman, having been the only woman to ever play polo with the Chicago Polo Club. She is already in the employ of Mr. Harris in his "Music Box Revue" as a dancer.

When she heard that Sam intended to renew his activities on the turf she felt an impulse to renew the early morning gallops of days past. She told him she thought it would improve her figure.

He saw the point. And now early every morning Miss Haig exercises at the track. She has applied to the Jockey Club for a license.

"And I think it will be just too

GARCIA WANTS TO FIGHT GROSS

Frankie Garcia, the "Cuban wonder," who takes 'em all on from 125 to 135 pounds, stopped off here Monday for a howdydo en route from Dayton to Milwaukee, where he will fight several scraps. Frankie wanted to know about getting the parchment fixed up for a fight with Jackie Gross, local featherweight.

He might give Gross a hard fight, as he is a firm believer in the slumber punch rather than a lot of boxing technique. He does not exchange punches with an opponent merely for the sake of making a showing, but tries at all times to slip the sleep producer over. The local boy is inclined that way also and it would be interesting to watch two fighters with minds occupied with a single thought.

IS CHALLENGED

G. A. Snyder, manager of Frankie Evans, champion flyweight of Columbus, has challenged Don Baxter of this city to a bout. The capital city boy, who carries scamps of Frankie Dale, Paul Ellwood, Battling Omar, Bud Eckman and other fighters on his belt, is scheduled to meet Harry Forbes, flyweight champ of West Virginia, May 22.

SHORT SHAVINGS

Bob Shaw of the Orpheum, received a request to rush a performance up to the Cleveland broadcasting station, to fill a vacancy in a radio concert. Someone misunderstood.

the order, and when the performer arrived at the station she turned out to be a dancer.

Charley Maxwell and Earl Smith became joint owners of four fine racers. Smith says the four were so much alike he couldn't tell them apart. But there must have been some way to distinguish them, he says. "For when I came back from a trip my partner said 'Too bad, Earl! Both your coons died.'"

R Stone, contractor, says a friend put up a porch swing at his home. "I don't think I put it up right," he told Stone. "The next day it came down with a crash, my wife and half the porch ceiling."

Dr. F. L. Foust asked of a salesman friend "How's business?" "Fine," he said. "Is it really?" asked Doc. "No," he said. "I just said that for a change because I got tired of saying it is rotten."

WAGE CUT REJECTED — Platformmen of the Cleveland Railway Company voted to reject the company's proposal to reduce their wages 10 per cent.

DRY AGENT NAMED — Frank A. High has been appointed federal prohibition agent in charge of the Cincinnati office to succeed Robert E. Flora, who recently resigned.

JUDGMENT TAKEN — A cognovit judgment for $400 against Isaac and Mary Heider, was obtained by the Commercial Bank and Savings company, in common pleas court.
